ORCID Institutional Endorsements in the California State University

By Mark G. Bilby, PhD, MSLIS, Scholarly Communication Librarian, California State University, Fullerton
ORCID US Community Call, June 16, 2020: Presentation Outline: doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.3897325

2017 June – Linked Open Data for Libraries, Archives, and Museums summit in Venice

2017 Dec – CSUF ORCID LibGuide created

2018 Jan – ORCID institutional connection SSO via Educause implemented

2018-2019 AY – stakeholder meetings with ORSP, Advancement, Strategic Communications, Alumni Office, and Chancellor's Office of Research; numerous faculty workshops; Interfolio vendor meeting

2018 May – ORCID for California Research Institutions conference at CSUDH

2018 Oct – DLF presentation on ORCID in California Institutes of Higher Ed

2019 Mar – ORCID Resolution passed by CSUF Academic Senate (AS) Library cmte

2019 Apr – AS Executive Committee recommends endorsement instead

2019 May – five AS committees (FA, FDCB, FRP, IT, Library) and six administrators sign CSUF ORCID endorsement, read into AS plenary minutes

2019 July – CSUF gets first CSU ORCID membership, co-funded by IT and Library

2019-2020 AY – numerous implementation and vendor meetings; ORCID OJS integration; CSUN gets ORCID membership; CSU COLD ScholComm cmte puts ORCID on annual plan

2019 Dec 13 – Academic Senate of the California State University (ASCSU) Faculty Affairs (FA) cmte reviews ORCID Resolution authored by Bilby, edited by Sadler and Rabun, and brought by Stohs

2020 Jan 24 – ASCSU FA cmte approves resolution; ASCSU plenary first reading

2020 May 7 – ASCSU passes ORCID Resolution (AS-3412-20/FA) without dissent

2020 June 13 – ASCSU AS-3412/20-FA Next Steps Letter

2020 June-July – awaiting Chancellor's Office response