

5. All behaviour kinetics with dark phase correction (AOCF grouping)

Comment:

Duration of each behaviour per hour and per genotype with dark phase start correction. The space between the dotted lines represents the time intervall in which data for all animals is present. Due to the different individual start times this alignment around the dark phase is necessary

