

Dear Mr. XXX,

We are reaching out to invite you to participate in an important research study aimed at evaluating the efficacy of existing Golang static analysis tools in addressing real-world software issues. Your expertise and insights as an experienced Golang developer would be invaluable to the depth and accuracy of our findings.

If you decide to join us in this endeavor, we kindly ask that you begin by reading the instructions provided in (...) and proceed to complete the tasks outlined in the same document within 2 weeks.

**Confidentiality:** Your responses and any personal information will be kept confidential. Data will be reported in aggregate form, and individual participants will not be identifiable.

**Benefits and Risks:** While there may be no direct benefit to you, your participation is expected to contribute to our understanding of static analysis tools in software development. There are no known risks associated with your participation beyond those encountered in everyday life.

**Contact Information:** Should you have any questions or concerns about the study, you are encouraged to contact us.

If you agree to participate, please reply to this email with your consent. You may use the following statement:

"I, [Your Name], have read and understood the information provided about the Golang static analysis tools study. I have had the opportunity to ask questions, and all my questions have been answered to my satisfaction. I consent to participate in this study."

We greatly appreciate your consideration and hope to have you as part of this significant project.

Thank you in advance for your time and potential contribution.

Best regards,
Jianwei Wu and James Clause
