Description

“Opinions and Views of the Population of Ukraine” is a regular omnibus survey, conducted by Kyiv International Institute of Sociology (KIIS) among Ukraine’s adult population and covering a wide range of topics. The data presented here is a subset of the survey conducted in May 2024 and include KIIS’s own research questions. Questions included are: readiness for concessions for peace, views on Ukraine’s relationship with Russia, perceptions of the war between Russia and Ukraine, views on security agreements, perceptions of Ukrainian society’s unity, attitudes toward criticism of the government, attitudes toward the legalization of medical cannabis, and perceptions of Ukraine’s statehood during the Soviet era. Data collection took place from May 16 to 22, 2024, with 1,067 respondents interviewed. The data is available in an SAV format (Ukrainian, English) and a converted CSV format (with a codebook). The Data Documentation (pdf file) also includes a short overview and discussion of survey results as well as the relevant parts of the original questionnaire.
