"MY HEART, MY HOME"

To my daughter, Rhianna Edzn Mae, my true soulmate,
A miracle of love, a dream come true.
I walked the fray; I battled with pain,
But in your eyes, I'd do it all over again.
I am grateful for every tear, for every fight.
You are brilliant with kindness, a guiding light
Shiny and shimmering, stout and free,
You are the best part of me.

To my mother, Silveriana, my rock, my friend,
No matter what was happening, you always fight for me until the end.
And in work and in life and in dreams I pursue,
You are always there guide me, a heart that is so true.
Look into the future with open arms through the highs and lows
Your love is the home my spirit knows.

To my partner, Sherwin, my pure love,
A heart, so strong, so kind, so sure.
You sacrificed; you pave the way,
A constant light both night and day.
For Riri's dreams, you protect, you advise,
With care and a bottomless sense of pride.
In you I found love's truest part,
A courageous soul, a boundless heart

My family, who are the rope that ties me -- my endless grace,
From your love, I found my place.
Through calm and storm, and come what may,
Together, forever, we fight challenges and find our way
