All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business, such as to process transactions, maintain customer accounts, and report to credit bureaus.

▼ Privacy Notice

This Privacy Notice applies only to individuals as consumers and not as operators of a business, and it does not apply to corporations and other organizations. Our Privacy Notice describes Susquehanna Community Bank's practices for handling your personal information and the steps we take to protect it. You will receive a copy when opening a new account or applying for a product or service. Additionally, for your convenience, you can view and print a copy of the Notice online. Your personal information is only shared in accordance with our Privacy Notice. Read how we protect your personal information in our Privacy Notice (PDF).

This Privacy Notice replaces all privacy notices previously issued and may be amended by us at any time. If we make a material change to our privacy policy, we will provide our current consumer customers with a revised privacy notice that explains our new policy.
