Commercial Bank of California Mobile Privacy Disclosure

FACTS

What Does Commercial Bank of California Do with Your Personal Information From The Mobile Application

Why?

The mobile application requests access to information stored on your device such as location, camera, contacts, or other features you are enrolled in to enrich and simplify your own user experience and improve our services, as well as provide additional security to protect your account.

It is important for you to understand that:

- Before granting access to this information, you will be prompted to give the application that permission.
- If you do not wish to grant that permission, you may decline.
- If you later change your mind, those permissions can be updated in your device's settings.

What?

Some examples of information your app will request access to are:

- Location
- Contacts
- Camera

How?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

The application information is retained in accordance with state and federal record retention laws. Please contact us to determine specific timeframes for your personal stored information and if that information may be deleted.

Questions?

Please contact Treasury Services at treasuryservices@cbcal.com regarding questions about the information included in this Mobile Privacy Disclosure or questions about this application.

You can also access the bank's Privacy Policy, which will also address your privacy rights in California at <https://cbcal.com/privacy/>.

CBC is one of the nation's highest capitalized banks founded by entrepreneurial business owners and led by a talented team with an ownership mindset.
