ETERNAL GOD, WHO QUICKENING LIGHT.

Copyright, 1910, by Novello and Company, Limited.

The Alleluias in each verse are to be sung Full, and in harmony, except the last two, which are always to be unison.

ETERNAL God, Who quickening light
Breathed on Creation's primal night,
And Nature bent to Thy command
Till order reigned on sea and land :

Eternal God, Who cloud and flood
Rolled back, and evil changed to good ;
Then Earth's dominion gave to man,
As lord of Thine appointed plan :—

To Thee, Eternal God, we raise
For every gift our grateful praise ;
But chiefly for redeeming Love,
Star brightest on Thy throne above.

Star of our hope ! Blest Son of God !
Whose feet Earth's thorny pathway trod :
Who bore the burden of the Cross,
Wearing the Crown of mortal loss :

Hope of our souls ! Who, man to save,
Suffered the darkness of the grave :—
Grant us with Thee from death to rise !
Grant us Thy triumph in the skies !

O Gift of Love, Creative Fire,
Kindle in us Divine desire !
Let Thy light lead us ! Show the way
From Death's dark Night to glorious Day :

CHARLES F. GRINDROD.
