

Chinese tourist in 'serious condition' in France's fourth coronavirus case

Issued on: 28/01/2020 - 19:14 Modified: 28/01/2020 - 19:14

A picture taken in a laboratory of the National Reference Center (CNR) for respiratory viruses at the Institut Pasteur in Paris on January 28, 2020 shows a biohazard sticker on the entrance of a room. The CNR analyses for respiratory viruses among which coronavirus. AFP - THOMAS SAMSON

Text by: NEWS WIRES

An elderly Chinese tourist in a "serious condition" in a Paris hospital is France's fourth confirmed case of the new coronavirus that has killed more than 100 people since it emerged in the Chinese city of Wuhan, France's top health official said Tuesday.

The man, visiting France from the hard-hit Chinese province of Hubei, was being treated in intensive care by medical staff, health director general Jerome Salomon told reporters in the capital.

(AFP)

ADVERTISING

Compare savings accounts with our calculator.

Online Savings Account

1.70%
APY

Learn More

Marcus:
BY GOLDMAN SACHS

Goldman Sachs Bank USA, Member FDIC