General Data

Name of instrument:	Employment Pact Tyrol (Beschäftigungspakt Tirol )
Country / region:	AT
Spatial level:	federal state
Type:	Voluntary approaches and agreements / cooperation
Subtype:	Voluntary cooperation and commitments, not legally binding
Description:	Cooperation with all job market institutions lead-managed by the federal state, federal social service department and job market service (each with alternating chairmanship) + 14 partners (chamber for employees, Austrian chamber for economy, industrial alliance,...) to be able to work efficiently by close collaboration based on common objectives. The AMG (employment-market-aid-association) as an independent institution is responsible for the realisation. No direct impact on land take but an important step towards regional cooperation of institutions who traditionally rather focus on their own segment instead of considering sectoral and regional synergies. It is considered to be a substantial improvement towards regional development.
General objectives:	Added value of all job-market supporting arrangements through cooperation of all money- and know how investing organs in special consideration of regional needs and potentials. Creation of a regionalisation pact in which existing regionally rooted, inter-municipal associations and organisations are integrated on decisions concerning job market promotion.
General Objectives keywords:	socio-economic development ; inter-municipal cooperation ;
Responsible:	others
Responsible:	AMG (employment-market-aid-association)
Stakeholder Involved:	others

General assessment of strength and weakness:	Strength: coordination yields in added value; efficiency of investments is much higher in the case of common interests compared to individual approaches. Weakness: Individual interests are often hard and longsome to overcome; the instrument is not yet known by the general public; identical stakeholders have functions in more than one involved organisation; top down organisation is contradicting desired bottom up strategies!
