General Data

Name of instrument:	Stakeholder Commission (Conferenza dei servizi)
Country / region:	IT
Spatial level:	federal state
Type:	Voluntary approaches and agreements / cooperation
Subtype:	Conflict prevention and resolution
Description:	This procedure describes the establishment of a forum which, according to National Law no. 241/90, is summoned when: a) A simultaneous survey is advisable of the stakes held by different public bodies on (the effects of) a given decision-making procedure; b) The promoting public body has not obtained within a given delay (usu. 15 days) the necessary consent/agreement having been duly requested to the other public bodies involved in the decision-making procedure; c) An agreement is to be stipulated ('Accordo di programma') between different public bodies. Note that this procedure typically unites authorities pertaining to different spatial scales, from national to local. A CdS can also be held at municipal (or inter-municipal) level, according to National Law DLgs 112/98 (and related laws): see entry 'Counter for Consolidated Procedure'.
General objectives:	Simplify the traditional decision-making processes. Ensure proper coordination/agreement between the involved public stakeholders when implementing programs, interventions or other public works.
General Objectives keywords:	public participation ; stakeholder involvement ;
Responsible:	Federal state/Province authority
Responsible:	Promoting Public Body
Stakeholder Involved:	Local authority/Municipal council

General assessment of strength and weakness:	Strength: Enhance responsibility, transparency, cooperation and build mutual trust. Speed up decision-making. Weakness: Stronger stakeholders can easily prevail. Exclusion/marginalization (usu.) of non-public/weaker stakeholders. A compromise decision is likely to be made, not always matching the common good requirements.
