

Interview Visualizations

A dark blue diagonal gradient bar that starts from the bottom left corner and extends towards the top right corner, covering the lower half of the slide.

Common Psychoactive Substances

Common Recreational Psychoactive Substances:

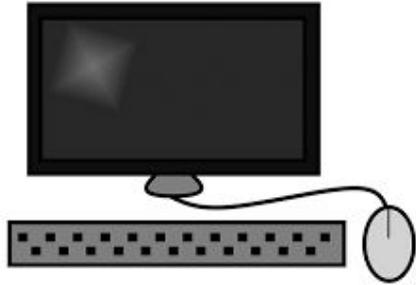

- Alcoholic Beverages (e.g., beer, wine)
- Tobacco-products (e.g., cigarettes, vapes, cigars)
- Cannabis products (e.g., marijuana, weed)
- Caffeine (e.g., coffee, diet soda)
- Amphetamine type stimulants (e.g., speed, diet pills, ecstasy)
- Inhalants (e.g., nitrous, glue, petrol, paint thinner)
- Cocaine (e.g., coke, crack)
- Opioids (e.g., heroin, morphine, methadone, codeine)
- Sedatives or Sleeping Pills (Valium, Serepax, Rohypnol)
- Hallucinogens (e.g., LSD, acid, mushrooms, PCP)

Medications commonly prescribed:

- Antidepressants (e.g., SSRIs/SNRIs (Prozac, Zoloft, Lexapro), Wellbutrin, tricyclics, etc.)
- Anti-anxiety (e.g., SSRIs/SNRIs, tricyclics, beta-blockers, benzodiazepines (Xanax, Ativan))
- Antipsychotic (e.g., Haldol, Loxitane)
- Mood stabilizers (e.g., Lithium, Tegretol)
- Stimulant (or stimulant-like) medications (e.g., Adderall, Ritalin, Strattera)
- Heavy Pain relievers (e.g., Codeine)
- Other (e.g., sleeping pills, etc.)

Note: Some substances may be used both recreationally and medically

Note: This chart is not exhaustive

Common Software Tasks

Brainstorming

Debugging

Data Analysis

Detailed Program or System Design

Prototyping

Quality Assurance

Reading or Writing Documentation

Refactoring

Requirements Elicitation

Software Coding and Testing

System Integration