

The Modern Sunday School in Principle and Practice. By Henry F. Cope, General Secretary the Religious Education Association. Fleming H. Revell Company, Chicago. Price $1.00.

Great in numbers and varied in quality are the Sunday School books now on the market. Among the best works on the principles and methods of Sunday School organization and practice is this well-balanced and up-to-date volume, by Prof. Cope. Two chapters are given to a brief historic survey of the development of the Sunday School idea, while seventeen chapters are devoted to the vital elements in Sunday School success. The book is not crowded with perplexing details, but discusses fundamental principles and presents valuable suggestions for practical efficiency. Among the themes the author develops are the following:—Plan of organization, Building and Equipment, Program, Class Work, Manual Methods, Missions, Curriculum, Adult Bible Class Movement, Training the Working Forces, and The Library Problem.

BYRON H. DEMENT.

The Truth About Grace. By A. Berean. Price 25 cents. Charles C. Cook, New York.

A readable booklet of 94 pages, defining grace and noting its enemies, Law (Adventism), Works, (Romanism), and Character (Unitarianism). The discipline of grace contemplates correction, purification and full preparation for life's ministry. The fruits of the Spirit are considered and the laws of grace are outlined as the law of Liberty, the law of Service, the law of Self-denial, the law of Aspiration, and the law of Self-discipline.

BYRON H. DEMENT.

Training the Teacher. The Sunday School Times Company, Philadelphia. Price 50 cents.

The Sunday School Times Company is performing a valuable service for the Sunday School world by its timely publications.