The Divine Reason of the Cross. A study of the Atonement as the Rationale of our Universe. By Henry C. Mabie, D.D. New York. Fleming H. Revell Co.

In ten chapters, and 184 pages, Dr. Mabie presents an illuminating and vigorous treatment of a very mysterious yet fundamental doctrine. The cross is the exhibition of the purest love and the highest reason. The vicarious and redemptive principles are the ground work of the universe. The Cosmos is pervaded with the life which reaches its sacrificial climax in Calvary. The titles of the chapters will indicate the scope of the work. The Cross and Highest Reason, the Universe Redempto-Centric, the Reconciled Antinomy in God, The Father's Sharing Calvary, the Divine Mediation Unique, the "Cross" as Watchword, Superabundance of Grace, the Moral and Forensic One, the Evangelical Principle, Faith and Philosophy Congruous.

Dr. Mabie has a strong grasp on the deep things of God, and gives us an insight into the profound and vital depths of the atonement of Christ which are often either overlooked or rejected. Many will be grateful to the author for a treatise so sane and strong, so spiritual and Scriptural.

The Theology of the New Testament. By Walter F. Adeney, M.A., Professor of New Testament Introduction, History and Exegesis, New College, London. London. Hodder and Stoughton.

The Theology of the New Testament receives at the hands of Prof. Adeney a brief, able and comprehensive treatment. The teaching of Jesus Christ is considered in its bearing on the Kingdom of God, the Person of Christ, the Revelation of God, the Gospel, Redemption, Conditions of Membership in the Kingdom, the New Ethics, and The Future.

The Kingdom is not territorial and temporal but spiritual and eternal, and destined to become universal. Regeneration is the vital condition of membership. Christ carried out in pre-
