SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING.

For Revision of Rules.

FRIDAY, JULY 7TH, 1911.

WILLIAM HILL, F.G.S., President, in the Chair.

Mr. G. Potter proposed that the alterations to the Rules suggested by the Council which had been circulated amongst the members should be considered en bloc. Mr. F. Janchen seconded, and it was carried unanimously.

Mr. Herries then explained the effect of the various alterations and moved that they be adopted. This was seconded by Mr. Potter and carried unanimously.

This terminated the Special General Meeting.

The following are the Revised Rules :—

IV.

Members shall, subject to Rule XI, have the right of attending and voting at all Meetings and Excursions of the Association, of proposing Candidates for admission as Ordinary Members, of serving, if elected, on the Council or in any Office of the Association, of introducing two Visitors at the Ordinary Meetings and Excursions except when otherwise ordered by the Council, of using the Library in accordance with the Library Regulations, of receiving a copy of the Circulars and Proceedings of the Association issued during their membership, and of purchasing other Publications of the Association at such prices as the Council may from time to time determine.

XIII.

The management of the Association shall be vested in a Council consisting of a President, four Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, one or more Secretaries as the Council may from time to time determine, an Editor, a Librarian, and twelve other Members. The Council and Officers shall be elected annually by ballot at the Annual General Meeting; provided that the senior Vice-President, and the two senior Members of the Council who shall not have held during the preceding year any distinctive office, shall not be eligible for re-election as Vice-President or unofficial Members of the Council, respectively, until the next Annual General Meeting; and that the new Council shall contain at least four Members who were not Members of the Council during the preceding year.

(This Rule replaces the old Rule XIII. See loc. cit., p. 3.)

XXI.

The Accounts of the Association shall be made up to the 31st December in each year, and audited by two Members of the Association, not being Members of the Council, who shall be appointed by the Members as Auditors not later than the January Meeting following; and the Balance-sheet shall be submitted, together with a Report of the general progress of the Association during the preceding year, to an Annual General Meeting, which shall be held at such hour before the Ordinary Meeting in February as the Council shall appoint.

(This Rule replaces the old Rule XXI. See loc. cit., p. 4.)

XXII.

Persons of eminence in geological science, or who have done some special service to the Association, may be recommended by the Council for election as Honorary Members at the Annual General Meeting, and shall, upon being elected, have full rights and privileges of Membership, but the number of Honorary Members shall not exceed twenty-five.

(This Rule replaces the old Rule XXII. See loc. cit.)

XXIV.

No rule shall be altered except by a majority of votes of the Members present and voting at a Special General Meeting convened for that purpose.

(This Rule replaces the old Rule XXIV. See loc. cit.)

XXV.

Any Library, Museum, Scientific Society, Club, or other Public Institution may on application be admitted by the Council to be placed on the list of Members of the Association, and shall, on payment in advance of the sum of 10s. per annum, be entitled to such of the publications of the Association as are delivered free to the Members, but shall not be entitled to any other rights or privileges. The Council shall have full power to grant or to refuse permission to any such applicant, and the name of any Library, Museum, or other such Institution may be removed from the List of Members by the Council at any time.

(This Rule is new.)
