Great Pedagogical Essays.

By F. V. N. Painter, A. M., D. D., Professor in Roanoke College. Author of “A History of Education,” etc. Cloth, 12mo, 428 pages, Price $1.25. American Book Company, New York, Cincinnati, and Chicago.

Here we have a compilation of selections from twenty-six of the greatest theorists and workers in education from Plato to Spencer. The design is to place before the student of the history of education the chief sources of that history. A brief biographical sketch, usually two pages, introduces the selections from each author. This sketch states in each instance the service to education rendered by the author and the extent of his writings on the subject of education. The compiler has done well a service which he naturally wonders no one has undertaken before.

Friedrich Schiller. A Sketch of his Life and an Appreciation of his Poetry.

By Paul Carus. The Open Court Publishing Co., Chicago. 1905.

The centennial of the death of Schiller was fitly celebrated last year in Germany and this volume is a beautiful memorial of the great poet. There are a large number of handsome illustrations and copious selections from his writings are made in the German and with a metrical translation. The facts of his life are briefly told and then discriminating discussions of his philosophy and poetry follow. Schiller was devout in spirit though a free lance in his religious views. He was an eclectic in his philosophy and religion. But it is a pleasure to read this estimate of one of the most original spirits of the eighteenth century. His poems are admired not only in Ger-
