

Paths to the City of God.

Sermons by F. W. Gunsaulus, D. D., Chicago. F. H. Revell & Company, New York. $1.25 net.

The author of these sermons has long occupied an eminent position among the preachers of America. Likewise his work as a lecturer upon various platforms has commended him to a large and admiring circle of hearers. Critics like Dr. W. C. Wilkinson, in his "Modern Masters of Pulpit Discourse," and Dr. Brastow in his "Modern Preaching", have recognized the right of Dr. Gunsaulus to a place among the foremost preachers of our time. In the former volume of sermons, "Paths to Power", the qualities of Dr. Gunsaulus have been recognized by many readers. His reputation and influence as a preacher lose nothing in this second volume. The breadth of culture and range of thought which characterize the author are well known. Literary allusions and quotations are plentiful. The style is rich, sometimes to redundancy, flowing, pleasing and strong. The exegesis and application of Scripture are not those of the painstaking and accurate scholar, but rather of the popular and oratorical preacher. Dr. Gunsaulus is not always clear in his theological position and leaves one somewhat in doubt, at times, as to whether he does not go too far with the liberalistic school; yet there is an evangelical ring and an earnestness of spiritual feeling which delightfully pervade his discourse. The strong and pleasing personality of the man are in evidence. The sermons deserve and will reward earnest and devotional reading.
