

The Modern Sunday School in Principle and Practice. By Henry F. Cope, General Secretary the Religious Education Association. Fleming H. Revell Company, Chicago. Price $1.00.

Great in numbers and varied in quality are the Sunday School books now on the market. Among the best works on the principles and methods of Sunday School organization and practice is this well-balanced and up-to-date volume, by Prof. Cope. Two chapters are given to a brief historic survey of the development of the Sunday School idea, while seventeen chapters are devoted to the vital elements in Sunday School success. The book is not crowded with perplexing details, but discusses fundamental principles and presents valuable suggestions for practical efficiency. Among the themes the author develops are the following:—Plan of organization, Building and Equipment, Program, Class Work, Manual Methods, Missions, Curriculum, Adult Bible Class Movement, Training the Working Forces, and The Library Problem.

Hand-Work in the Sunday School. Milton S. Littlefield. Pp. 159.

A Manual of Missionary Methods for Sunday School Workers. George H. Trull. Pp. 245. The Sunday School Times Company, Philadelphia.

The work of the Sunday School is receiving the thoughtful consideration of the best educators of the present generation who are making rich contributions to the Sunday School curriculum and methods.

Mr. Littlefield shows that the law of expression by hand as well as by tongue is a sane educational principle to be observed by the Sunday School teacher. He has given us a unique volume and one worthy of special study. Many of his suggestions could be heeded with genuine interest and permanent benefit, especially to junior and intermediate pupils.

Types of Hand-work, Geography, Illustrative, Note-book, and Decorative work are treated, practical problems discussed, and the Social and Spiritual Aims of Hand-work presented.

The topical and geographical outlines of the Life of Christ and of the Apostle Paul are simple and illuminating. Mr. Trull has produced a book of rare interest on missions in the Sunday School. He shows the necessity and significance of teaching missions (the fundamental design of Christ) in Sun-
