VISIT TO THE MARBLE WORKS OF MESSRS.
FARMER AND BRINDLEY.

SATURDAY, MARCH 14TH, 1891.

Director : W. BRINDLEY, F.G.S.

At 2.30 p.m. the Members assembled at No. 63, Westminster Bridge Road, S.W. ; they were then conducted over the works by the Director, who explained the various processes employed in the cutting and polishing of marble. The extensive collection of British and Foreign marbles was also visited and explained. After passing a hearty vote of thanks to the Director for his kindness, the party dispersed.

VISIT TO THE MUSEUM OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS.

SATURDAY, MARCH 21ST, 1891.

DEMONSTRATION BY PROFESSOR C. STEWART, P.L.S.

The Members assembled in the Museum at three p.m., where they were met by Professor Stewart, who conducted them through the collection and explained various objects of interest in a manner highly appreciated by those present. A full report of a similar visit will be found in vol. xi., on page xxiii.

EXCURSION TO THE ISLE OF WIGHT.

THURSDAY, MARCH 26TH, TO TUESDAY, MARCH 31ST, 1891.

Directors : The PRESIDENT and THOMAS LEIGHTON, F.G.S.

(The Report of this Excursion is unavoidably deferred to the November Number.)