Census of Louth County and Drogheda City in 1659-60.

THE original MS. compiled in 1660, was discovered in 1865, in the Library of the Marquis of Lansdowne, at Berkeley House, London, by W. H. Hardinge, Esq., M.R.I.A., of the Landed Estates Court Record Office, Custom House Buildings, Dublin; to which Office it was then removed.

A copy of it was made in 1865 and deposited in the Library of the Royal Irish Academy, Dawson street, Dublin, from which the following copy was made in 1899 by Mr. Tenison Groves.

For further information see "The Earliest known MS. Census Return of the People of Ireland;" a paper by Mr. W. H. Hardinge, at pages 317-328 (part 4.) of volume 26, (Antiquities Sec.) of transactions of the Royal Irish Academy, Dublin, 1865.

NOTE by Mr. Tenison Groves :—

"I believe Mr. Hardinge was mistaken in assigning 1659 as the date of this MS. but that it should be 1660. It was compiled from the Poll Money Returns of that year. 'No. of People,' means the number of both men and women over 15 years who paid Poll Money. 'Tituladoes,' means those who paid for their Titles of 'gent,' 'esq.,' &c., under the same Tax. The Act of the Restoration Convention of 1660 and 1661 for Ireland decreeing this Tax is preserved in Marsh's Library, near St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, in volume G.4. 3,38."

In giving the numbers for each townland the English and Irish are given separately and totalled. Mr. Hardinge says (p. 320) that in Leinster—but not in Ulster curiously—the Scotch were also given, but this list does not confirm that statement, at least as regards the County Louth, and Scotch are only entered in County Longford.

NOTE.—As might be expected in lists consisting so largely of names, which vary in orthography in the course of time, there are many spelled differently from the present form, doubtless sometimes from mistakes in copying. For example, the present parish now styled Stabannon appears as Strabanum, and its "titulado" as Esquire James Gastin (should be Garstin), which name in the Drogheda list appears as Gaskin.

INDEX OF TITULADOES IN CO. LOUTH AND DROGHEDA, 1659-60.

Compiled by Mr. Tenison Groves, and not in the original, nor in Mr. Hardinge's copy. In this index christian names are reduced to one initial. The references are to the pages of the original. d stands for Drogheda. For index of Irish names see the foot of each barony. In the indexes to Irish families at foot of each barony the initials Mc and O' are ignored.
