

wholly erroneous impression. It can only be said that, great as may sometimes seem, the difficulties which the Problem of Jesus presents according to the view of him which the ages have held, they are incomparably less than would be presented, did we think that such an one as we are shown in this book had been the founder of Christianity and the Master of apostles, martyrs and saints.

At Jesus' Feet. By J. R. Gunn, author of "Redemption of Destitute Childhood." 1908. The Anderson Printing Co., Macon, Ga. Pp. 183.

In this book the young and earnest pastor of the Baptist Church of Madison, Ga., gives to the world sixteen discourses, the book taking its title from the first, which fairly suggests the preacher's temper throughout. He has chosen important topics, in worthy contrast to the merely novel, or at best unimportant subjects often chosen by preachers in these days. "Divine Authority and Power of Jesus," "Discipleship," "The Child's Saviour," "The Immortality of the Soul," are sample themes, and these really important subjects are treated in a simple, direct, earnest manner and style which cannot but be attractive and helpful to many. The author says of these discourses in his preface: "The blessing of God was upon them in their delivery, and many of my congregation have testified of the help received. I am sending them forth with the hope and prayer that He whom they seek to honor will continue to use them in a wider sphere." Doubtless this hope will be gratified.
