Some New Literary Valuations. By William Cleaver Wilkinson. Professor of Poetry and Criticism in the University of Chicago. Funk & Wagnalls, New York. 1909. Pages 411. Price, $1.50 net.

Dr. Wilkinson appears at his best as a critic of style in this volume, and his best is equal to that of any modern critic. The subjects of the present criticism are Howells, Matthew Arnold, Tennyson, Stedman, Morley, Tolstoi. The interest is held right on through and many fresh views are advanced. The mind of Dr. Wilkinson is very keen. He can, however, see the good as well as the bad points of a writer.

Astronomy With the Naked Eye. A New Geography of the Heavens. With Descriptions and Charts of Constellations, Stars and Planets. By Garrett P. Serviss. Harper and Brothers, New York. 1908. Pages 247. Price, $1.40 net.

The average man knows little about the stars save in a general way. The stars tell us of God and so teach theology to one who can read the language. The present volume is a popular discussion of the heavenly bodies. The book is attractive and helpful.

Sir Walter Raleigh. By Frederick A. Ober. Illustrated. Harper and Brothers, New York. 1909. Pages 302. Price, $1.00 net.

The romantic story of Sir Walter Raleigh is here told with charm and power. It is one of the "Heroes of American History" series. The pathos of the unsuccessful attempt of Raleigh to gain a firm foothold for Englishmen in North America is well brought out.
