

A community of practice supporting a digitally skilled workforce

MONASH DATA FLUENCY
FOR RESEARCH

David Groenewegen, Linda Kalejs, David Powell

Australian eResearch Skilled Workforce Summit 26 – 30 October, 2020

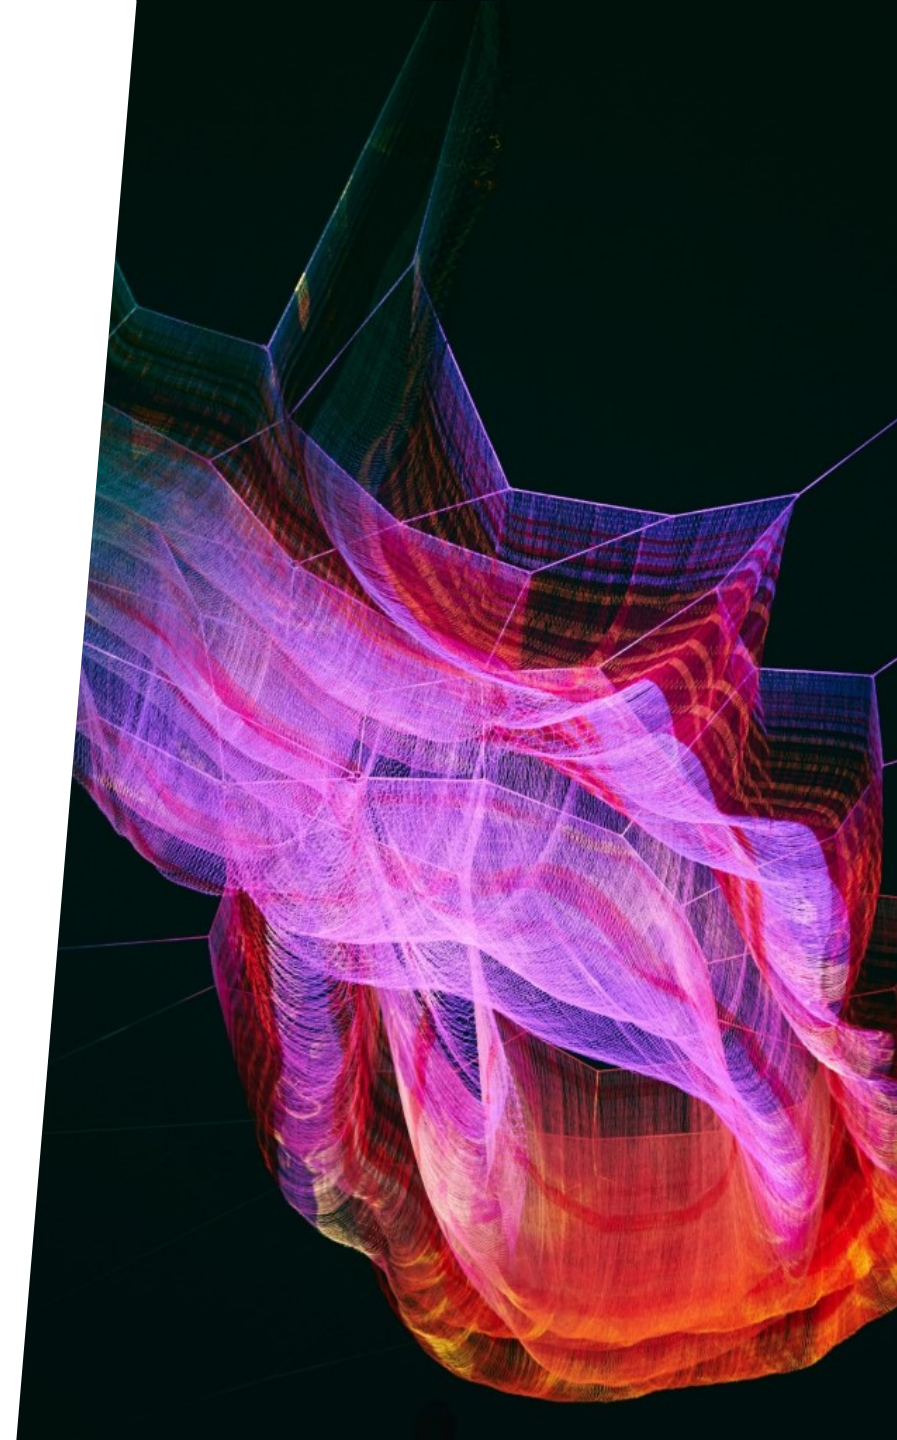

COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

Workshops

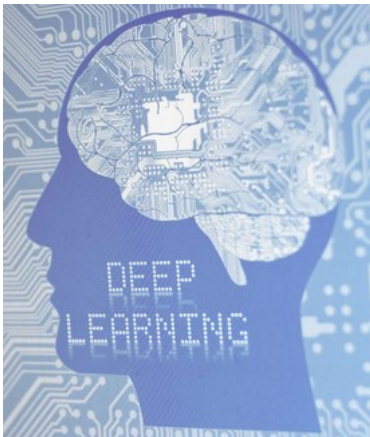

Drop-ins

Monthly seminars and networking

Participation in hackathons eg.
Melbourne Datathon

RANGE OF 18 WORKSHOPS TO LEARN HOW TO USE NEW TOOLS TO ANALYSE AND VISUALISE DATA

Additional support:

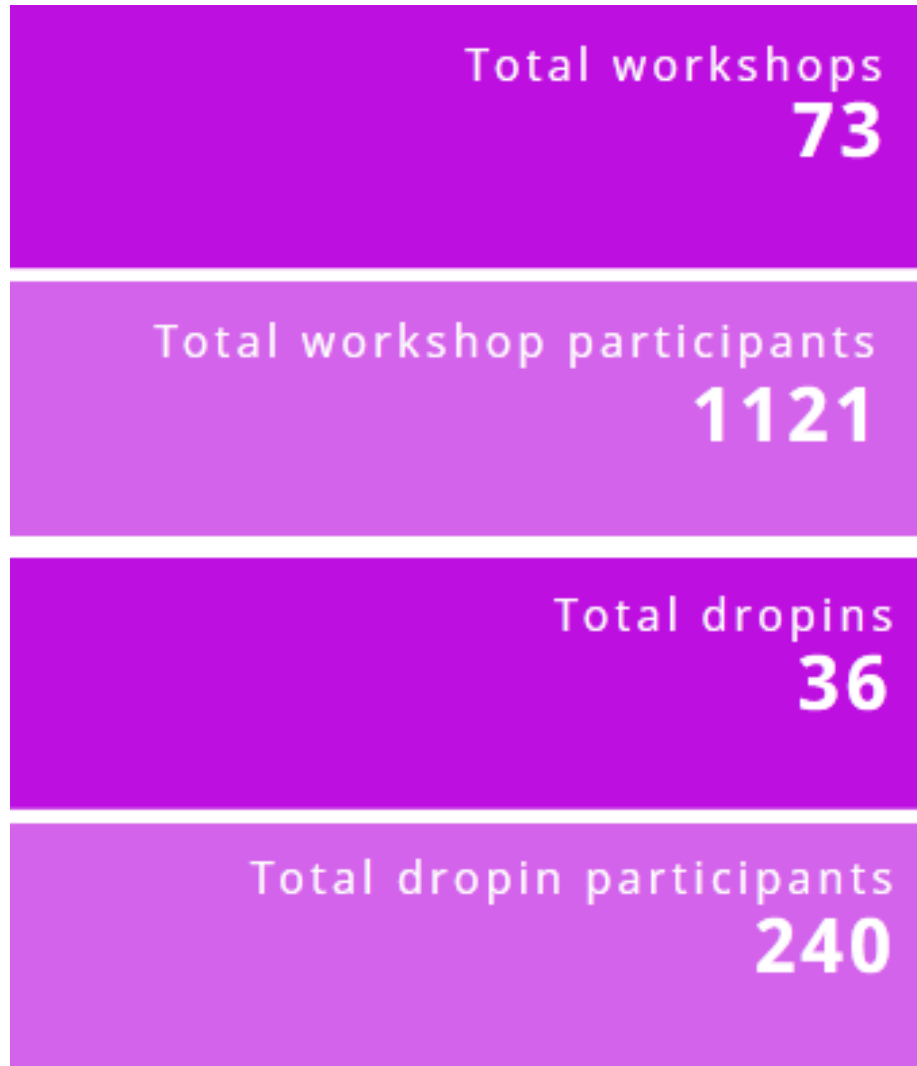

- Toolkit
- Drop-ins
- Open access learning resources

TEAM OF INSTRUCTORS

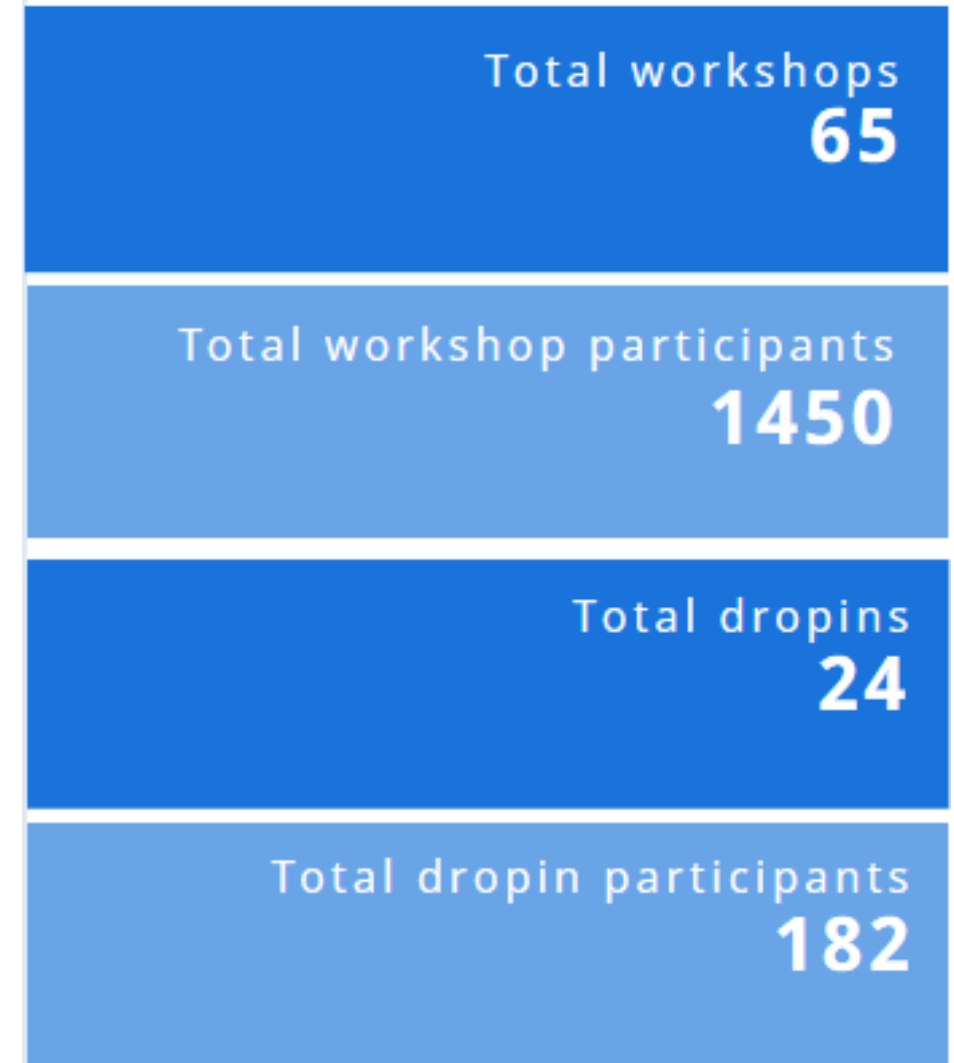

“Establishing and supporting a community of practice here at Monash is a welcome initiative that will empower our researchers to effectively communicate their research and ideas.”

- Professor Marc Parlange.

2019

2020 to August 31

<https://pixabay.com/illustrations/video-conference-skype-webinar-5162927/>

<https://hookedoninnovation.com/2020/05/13/25-strategies-to-engage-zoom/>

analysis applied approach better collaborate community connected data developed different dropins effectively employment enabled enhanced examples field fluency helped highly impacted improved interact interdisciplinary jobs journey learning multi-disciplinary network online particular people problem programming research relationships resources seminars sessions skills solve statistical teaching team tool training value various work workshops

Thank you

JOIN THE MAILING LIST DATA FLUENCY MAILING LIST
SLACK CHANNEL SLACK
LIKE @MONASH.UNIVERSITY ON WORKPLACE
FOLLOW @RESDATFLU ON TWITTER
CONTACT DATAFLUENCY@MONASH.EDU
VISIT MONASH.EDU/DATA-FLUENCY

