

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a large pile of various electronic devices and storage media. In the foreground, several USB drives are prominent, including a black SanDisk, a white Intenso, and a blue parallel. A silver hard drive is visible in the middle ground, and a green CD-ROM is on the right. A white and orange camera is also present. The background is filled with more miscellaneous items, including a blue lanyard and a red object. The text "...DATEN FÜR DIE EWIGKEIT" is overlaid in the lower center in a bold, blue, sans-serif font.
