001_INTRODUCTION QUESTION 1

This study aims to explore different dimensions of inequality in our lives. It is part of an international scientific effort to better understand how people at different stages of their lives, living in urban and rural areas, both men and women, experience and evaluate the environment around them. Such academic international examination is particularly important today to be able to compare and evaluate the recent changes in our lives. Thus we really appreciate your participation in this study. This interview is voluntary and confidential and the answers that you give will be kept confidential and will be used only for research purposes.
