

Nature-based climate shelters in schoolyards for sustainable urban transformation

June 13-14 2024 – International Conference Rotterdam

Gemeente Rotterdam

PROGRAM, PHOTOS AND PRESENTATIONS

DAY 1 June 13th

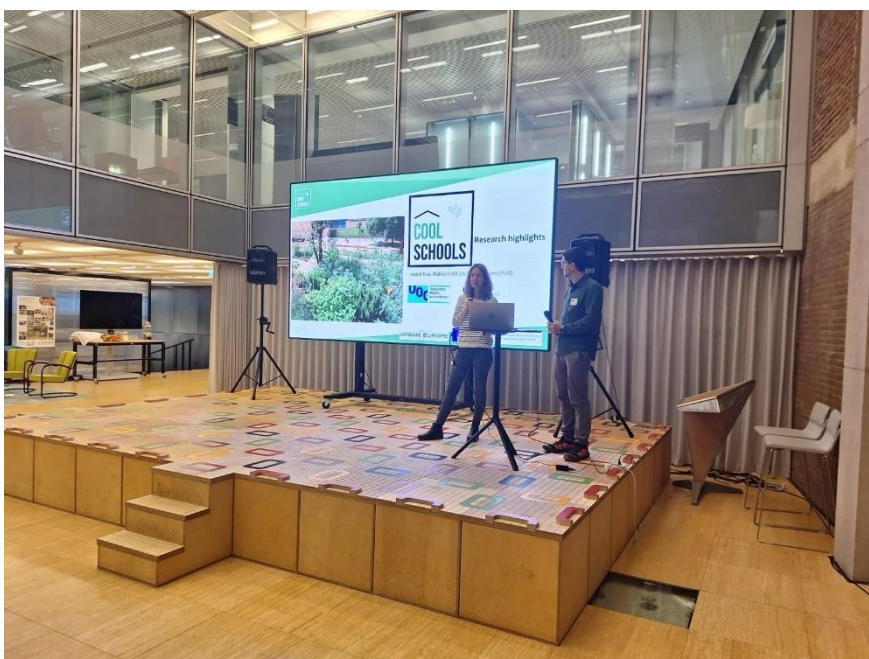

Infomarket: different European cities present their schoolyard greening actions, with a focus on neighborhood transitions.

Coolschools research highlights

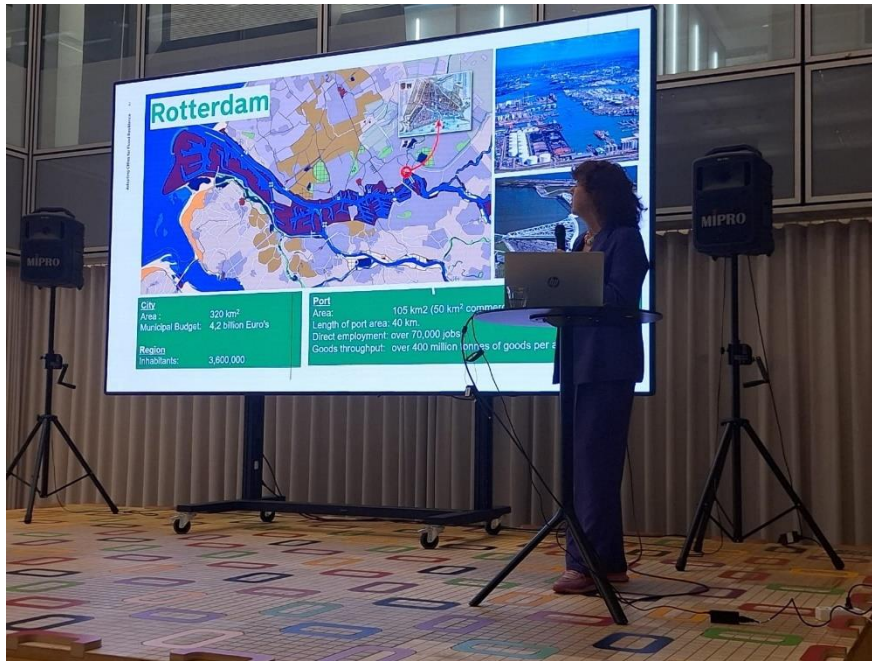

Isabel Ruiz Mallén – Universitat Oberta de Catalunya

Francesc Baró – Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB)

Green agenda, climate and biodiversity in the city of Rotterdam

Miranda Nauta – City of Rotterdam

Schoolyards as community bonding space

Jolanda Maas – Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

Guided city walking tour

Watersquare Benthemplein

Schoolyard De Provenier

Schoolyard De Margrietschool

Thomas More University of Applied Sciences – train the teacher!

Speeldernis – Play in nature

DAY 2 June 14th

Nature-based solutions (NbS) for a more engaged society: projects with citizen and children engagement at the University of Twente

Diana Reckien, Javier Martinez, Funda Atun, University of Twente

International Cooperation and Funding

Rushda Majeed (Bernard van Leer Foundation)

10:30 Workshop: setting up an European Network on nature-based schoolyards

13.30 Field trip and workshops Bospolder-Tussendijken

Community design – Sigrun Lobst

Outdoor on-site education – Lotte Klein

Neighborhood safari

To be continued....

