

How to use this template:

You can configure a Green Open Access Policy tailored to your needs by combining the different elements of this template. The column on the left side contains the most open options for a policy. The central column contains standardised formulations that apply to all possible policies. If you want to add restrictions of some kind, then simply choose among the diverse options from the column on the right side.

Most open version

Standard text

Options

Open Access promotes the visibility of publications. This is in the interest of both authors and publishers and is in line with the requirements of the Swiss universities and the national Open Access strategy of swissuniversities and the SNSF

Authors

Authors who are affiliated with Swiss Higher Education Institutions have the right to republish the final version of their article (fully copyedited, typeset and formatted copy of the manuscript as published) accepted manuscript (final draft of the journal article after it has been reviewed and accepted for publication, but before it has been typeset and formatted by the journal)

in any format they like

as a PDF

openly available online and free from payment on any website and/or a repository

(Pick one)

- in the repository of their choice, on their personal homepage as well as social network
- via a non-commercial repository
- via a non-commercial subject repository
- via a non-commercial institutional repository

under the Creative Commons licence CC BY 4.0 (redistribution, adaptation, commercial use with attribution and proper citation).

(Pick one)

- Creative Commons licence CC BY-SA 4.0 (redistribution, adaption, commercial use with attribution and proper citation, adaptations licensed under identical terms).
- Creative Commons licence CC BY-NC 4.0 (redistribution, adaptation, only non-commercial use with attribution and proper citation).
- Creative Commons licence CC BY-NC-SA 4.0 (redistribution, adaptation, only non-commercial use with attribution and proper citation, adaptations licensed under identical terms).
- Creative Commons licence CC BY-ND 4.0 (redistribution, commercial use with attribution and proper citation, unadapted form only).
- Creative Commons licence CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 (redistribution, only non-commercial use with attribution and proper citation, unadapted form only).
- Compliance with the publisher xyz conditions that grant usage rights in accordance with the Swiss copyright law.

The article may be made accessible immediately upon publication.

(Pick one)

- The article may be made accessible after a 3 months embargo period after publication.
- The article may be made accessible after a 6 months embargo period after publication.
- The article may be made accessible after a 12 months embargo period after publication.
- The article may be made accessible after a 24 months embargo period after publication.

The original publication by the publisher including complete bibliographic information (e.g. article title, journal name, volume) must be mentioned in a clearly visible place

(Pick one)

- In addition, the DOI of the published article must be used to link to the publisher's publication.
- In addition, the URL of the published article on the journal's website must be indicated.

The publisher provides the author with a copy/version of his article for secondary publication.

The article can be downloaded from the website of the publisher for secondary publication by the author.

In case of articles from authors affiliated with a Swiss Higher education institution at the time of publication the publisher xyz guarantees the respective Swiss Higher education institution the non-exclusive right to deposit a copy of the article as defined in the terms and conditions of this policy in its institution specific Open Access repository.

The publisher provides the library with a copy/version of the articles affected for secondary publication.

- Articles can be downloaded from the website of the publisher for secondary publication by the library.
- (dismiss phrase if not applicable)

This policy affects articles published after ....

If you have questions regarding the template or the project GOAL, send us an email to [goal-project\[at\]zhaw.ch](mailto:goal-project[at]zhaw.ch)

If the use of the policy template results in the development and implementation of an Open Access Policy, we are glad to incorporate it to the GOAL-Database. Visit us at <https://goal.zhaw.ch/home> and send us the new policy for incorporation by using the feedback form on the footer.