The RDA Data Citation WG has become a maintenance group to support further adoption of the recommendations, help clarifying open issues and collect feedback and recommended practises from adopters. If and wqhen necessary, a second iteration of the WG will be initiated to take up the recommendations and improve them based on the feedback of the adopters. Therefore, the recommendations will be improved and advanced in order to sustain and improve the results as the necessity arises.