

ARCHIVE: Archives of the SPSL, Bodleian Library, Oxford

FULL ARCHIVAL REFERENCE: Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.1-2

PERSON: Fritz Schulz

SHORT DESCRIPTION OF CONTENT: Files from the archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning (currently: CARA, Council for the Assistance of Refugee Academics):

- MS. SPSL. folder 129.1, ordered by university, checked folder marked 'Oxford'
- MS. SPSL. folder 129.2, Oxford ordered by college, checked folder marked 'Balliol'

PERSON VISITING ARCHIVE: Jacob Giltaij

DATE VISITED: 3.2.2014

DATE TRANSCRIBED: 3.2.2014

NOTES ON THE ARCHIVAL SOURCE:

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.1, 105-107 (6 pg.): Letter to Maxwell (Home office) presumably from Veale (Oxford University registrar) (22.7.1940); full list of proposed scholars eligible for a grant of the SPSL, Schulz on p. 3 (106-front, 'Class II' (explanation of classes on p. 1, no. 105-front), no. 9), two works for OUP, section on Roman law for Oxford History of Legal Science, with testimony from master of Balliol College (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.1, 112 (2 pg.): Letter to Maxwell from Veale (1.8.1940); additions to the list, among which (class II) Heinemann and Momigliano (Photographed) (129.1, 115 (2 pg.): another addition)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.1, 121 (1 pg.): letter from Veale to Simpson (SPSL) (3.10.1940); complete list of scholars 'who have been released', includes Heinemann, but not Schulz (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.1, 148-150 (3 pg.): letter from Beveridge to the Master of Balliol college (= Lindsay) (27.4.1933); 'take up the defence of academic freedom quite apart from the Jewish issue' (Photographed) (followed by correspondence with Beveridge 129.1, 151-158)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.1, 181-183 (4 pg.): correspondence between Bell (Balliol), Thomson (SPSL) and Lindsay (Balliol) (Photographed);

- MS. SPSL. 129.1, 181: 23.11.1938 (2 pg.)
- MS. SPSL. 129.1, 182: 25.11.1938 (1 pg.)
- MS. SPSL. 129.1, 183: 23.12.1938 (1 pg.); (from Bell to Thomson) mention of Schulz receiving a grant for a 100 Pounds for writing a book on Roman law

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 12 (1 pg.): letter from Bell to Thomson (18.12.1938); possibility of a contribution to Schulz (Photographed) (Copy: 129.2, 13)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 16 (1 pg.): letter from Thomson to Bell (29.12.1938); 'We certainly think Schulz is a very good case and I will get going with the application to the Home Office tomorrow, I think we have full papers regarding him' (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 17-18 (2 pg.): letter from Thomson to Bell (15.12.1938); 'As regards Fritz Schulz we know all about him and would gladly have helped him in the past.', mention of Pringsheim in the same sentence ('almost equally eminent Roman civilian'), South-Africa will not accept Jews (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 19-21 (3 pg.): letter from Bell to Thomson (13.12.1938); response to 17-18, Schulz on 21 (- p. 3), recommendations from Jolowicz and Tylor, Roman law a not very marketable commodity, proposal from Jolowicz for him to revise a 'standard text' on Roman law (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 22 (1 pg.): letter from Thomson to Bell (3.1.1939); 'I am afraid that just at the moment we will not be able to apply for Schulz, as despite the provision offered it does not seem to us safe to get a man almost 60 years old without more permanent plans.' (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 23-24 (2 pg.); letter from Thomson to Bell (5.1.1939); doubts with regard to Schulz's old age (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 25-26 (2 pg.); letter from Bell to Thomson (4.1.1939); provision of the grant for 100 Pounds matched by OUP (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 30 (1 pg.); letter from Bell to Thomson (11.1.1939); 'We are still anxious to find if something can be done for Schulz' (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 31 (1 pg.); letter from Bell to Thomson (29.1.1939); '...we intend to persevere with the case of Schulz,...' (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 32 (1 pg.); letter from Thomson to Bell (30.1.1939); '...pushing him with the Warden of All Souls..' (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 129.2, 53 (1 pg.); letter from Bell to Thomson (5.9.1939); legal difficulties regarding payment to 'enemy aliens' in a time of war, among whom Schulz (Photographed) (129.2,56: making use of services of scholars only possible if they have 'passed through the tribunals', members of the college asked to answer any individual queries)

(Nothing in the folder marked 'All Souls', from Merton only two documents are appended, neither of which relevant)