Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 158 (1 pg.): Simpson to Schulz (6.3.1941); will submit application to AC for renewal of the grant, decrease in income is compelling SPSL to cancel grants

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 159 (1 pg.): Searle to Peiser (Government, Central office for refugees) (28.4.1941); SPSL will provide relief to Martha Schulz without authorization, since it is money from Balliol

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 160 (1 pg.): Peiser to Searle (23.4.1941); last two months of payment spread over three months as relief for Martha Schulz, should this be authorized?

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 161 (1 pg.): Simpson to Schulz (29.4.1941); grant has been renewed for another three months from 5.1941 at 130 Pounds/y

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 162 (1 pg.): Schulz to Simpson (7.7.1941); a kind and generous benefactor is prepared to pay a sum sufficient for S.'s living for a year, S. does not know who it is (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 163 (1 pg.): statement of SPSL on the grant (23.9.1941) (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 164 (1 pg.): Simpson to Schulz (9.7.1941); response to no. 162, 'I sincerely hope that the new grant that you are getting will be on rather more generous lines so that you can live a little more comfortably than hitherto.'

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 165 (1 pg.): extract from a letter from Hollitscher (British Federation of University Women) (15.11.1943); on Martha Schulz, 'as pleasant and kind as ever' (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 166-167 (2 pg.): Schulz to Skemp (24.11.1945); full statement of activities since 9.1939, Oxford History of Legal Science to be published by Kantorowicz as well as De Zulueta, K. died prematurely, apart from the two books a series of papers (oa. five on Bracton), will not go back to Germany but stay and apply for citizenship, reason given is work on Bracton and children, will lecture at a German university if required (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 168 (1 pg.): Schulz to Ursell (17.6.1948); request

temporary support, lived by the money paid by Clarendon, second book is almost finished (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 169 (1 pg.): Ursell to Schulz (21.6.1948); request submitted at the meeting, and granted for three months

(folder marked 'B Schulz, Fritz, Law, naturalisation')

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 171 (1 pg.): Schulz to 'Sir' (SPSL) (13.10.1946); informing him of plans on naturalization, Skemp approved, discussed with Sisam (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 172 (1 pg.): Ursell to Schulz (15.10.1946); no priority from HO due to wartime record of research and writing, contrary to academic point of view, if Sisam disagrees he may write to me

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 173 (1 pg.): Sisam to Ursell (28.11.1946); Schulz has done important work for the University, he is too old to take up teaching in Germany again, his whole family is here, Schulz is a special case (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 174 (2 pg.): Ursell to Sisam (29.11.1946); did not query his suitability, wartime record is not sufficiently strong to warrant a claim for priority, Schulz's position will not be affected by a delay of two or three years, if requested will bring up the case at the HO

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 175 (1 pg.): Sisam to Ursell (2.12.1946); scholars that supply the books the universities desperately need may take priority, due to his age delay might mean Schulz may never be naturalized at all, a chance for the HO to show interest in the Humanities that have suffered under the war, SPSL ideal to intercede (Photographed)

Bodleian Library, Oxford, Archives of the Society for the Protection of Science and Learning, MS. SPSL. 274.2, 176 (1 pg.): Ursell to Sisam (3.12.1946); will bring up the matter at the HO, will make use of your letters
