

ARCHIVE: The New School Archives and Special Collections (former The New School for Social Research), New York

FULL ARCHIVAL REFERENCE: The New School Graduate Faculty minutes, NS.02.17.02

PERSON: Hermann Kantorowicz

SHORT DESCRIPTION OF CONTENT: The Faculty minutes of the Faculty of Political and Social Science of the New School, also known as the 'University in Exile'.

PERSON VISITING ARCHIVE: Jacob Giltaij

DATE VISITED: 13.9.2016

DATE TRANSCRIBED: 13.9.2016

NOTES ON THE ARCHIVAL SOURCE:

New School Graduate Faculty minutes, NS.02.17.02, 1 (28.2.1934): decision not to appoint a successor for Kantorowicz (1 pg.)

New School Graduate Faculty minutes, NS.02.17.02, 2 (21.2.1940): address by Wunderlich (faculty and old student of Kantorowicz in Freiburg) regarding the death of Hermann Kantorowicz, including the text itself: 'one of the last knights of liberalism', 'fighter for freedom and human rights', 'Out of a deep sense of justice he defended the judges' free interpretation of law in favor of the defendant and not to the latter's disadvantage as is the custom of the Nazi regime' (2 pg.)