Oxford University Press Archives, Oxford, Schulz CP ED 000129, 21 (1 pg.): state of affairs reg. vol. II made by De Zulueta (18.5.1938); Roman law: Kantorowicz (Photographed)

Oxford University Press Archives, Oxford, Schulz CP ED 000129, 22 (2 pg.): De Zulueta to Sisam (22.5.1938); regarding De Francisci 'best Italian for the job', mention of Schulz 'whose Prinzipien you have published', is however a non-Aryan, for Cuneiform law Koschaker is non-political, Kantorowicz persona ingratis to the Nazis, 'unless he is supported by some eminent and totalitarian person', 'This whole trouble, which we have found decidedly hampering, will be cured if the most important contribution to Vol. I comes from the pen of a prominent, though not a violent, fascist. You may say that we might get a German Nazi. There is only one I can think of having sufficient status -W. Kunkel of Goettingen. But he is not so good, and the difficulty we meet in securing De F. would be greater in this case, because of the exchange value of the mark.' (Photographed)

Oxford University Press Archives, Oxford, Schulz CP ED 000129, 23 (3 pg.): De Zulueta to A. Norrington (OUP, predecessor to Sisam?) (2.4.1938); mention of Koschaker as having accepted (Photographed)
