

tal philosophy. The lectures are delivered in the Philosophy Hall at Cambridge, four days in the week, between the middle of March and the middle of July annually. In order to their admission such students must produce, to the Professor above mentioned, a certificate of their matriculation from the Dean of the faculty of medicine, and another certificate from the Steward of the University that they have paid him seven dollars for the Treasurer. Other persons may be admitted to the same lectures, with the approbation of the President, and producing a certificate from the Steward that they have paid ten dollars. Application to be made in writing to the College Registrar.

The fee for the degree of Doctor of medicine is to be paid to the College Treasurer. The fee is twenty dollars for a person who has not taken a degree of Bachelor of arts at any College or University; fifteen dollars for one who has taken the degree of Bachelor; and ten dollars for one who has taken the degree of Master of Arts.

It is to be desired that all candidates for the degree of doctor of medicine should comply with the foregoing statutes; but in cases where they operate as ex post facto laws, and thereby occasion any considerable inconvenience to candidates, exemptions will be made by the faculty of medicine.
