In the Ending of the Year.

"Glory to God, and Joy to all above,
While earth is crown'd with plenty, man with love.
Light flows from Light, yet in its Fount resides,
So Christ from God, yet God in Christ abides.
Born of a Maid, that was both Spouse and Mother,
And so in all, excepting sin, our Brother."
Dr. SPARKE'S Scintilla Altaris, A.D. 1700.

IN THE ENDING OF THE YEAR.

The musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The tempo marking 'poco rit.' is placed above the treble staff, followed by an asterisk. The lyrics 'Ho - ly Babe is here De Vir - gi - ne Ma - ri - á.' are written below the treble staff. The score continues with a second system, marked 'Dal 8.' and 'mf' (mezzo-forte) in the treble staff, and 'p' (piano) in the bass staff. The melody features a sharp note that is marked with an asterisk.

* This E is intended to be flat.

| 2 What in ancient days was slain,
This day calls to life again ;
God is coming, God shall reign
De Virgine ;
God is coming, God shall reign
De Virgine Mariá. | 4 On the straw He lays His Head,
Hath a manger for His bed,
Thirsts and hungers and is fed
De Virgine ;
Thirsts and hungers and is fed
De Virgine Mariá. |
| 3 From the desert grew the corn,
Sprang the lily from the thorn,
When the Infant King was born
De Virgine ;
When the Infant King was born
De Virgine Mariá. | 5 Angel-hosts His praises sing,
Three Wise Men their offerings bring,
Ox and ass adore the King
Cum Virgine ;
Ox and ass adore the King
Cum Virgine Mariá. |
| 6 Wherefore let us all to-day
Banish sorrow far away,
Singing and exulting aye
Cum Virgine ;
Singing and exulting aye
Cum Virgine Mariá. | |
