

heart; considerate and thoughtful regarding the peculiarities and eccentricities of human nature, adjusting myself to each, so as to produce harmony and not friction; to be pure in thought, word, and deed; broad-minded and liberal, not given to petty denunciation of my fellows; moderate in methods of life; never adding a burden or sorrow where a little forethought would give pleasure; not hasty in speech or action; sincere, candid, and truthful in every detail; conscientious in the execution of every duty; composed, unpretentious, and simple, keeping close to Nature's heart, and always relying upon Him I most earnestly strive to serve, keeping ever before me that exemplary Life as my rule of conduct towards men, thus creating an influence for good.

"This is my idea of making 'life worth living.'"

"LOUISE M. J. WADDELL"

It is with deep regret that the Nurses' Alumnae Association of the University of Maryland learn of the death of Miss Agnes Maupin, Class of 1898, after a lingering illness of pneumonia, at her home, No. 2004 North Charles Street, Baltimore, November 27, 1904.

At a special meeting of the alumnae the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"That we, as an association, have lost a most highly esteemed member.

"That her family have our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.

"That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF NURSING, and be recorded on the minutes of the meeting.

"It will be remembered by many of us that Miss Maupin was one of the five appointed by Governor Warfield to serve on the Examining Board of Maryland, where her loss will be keenly felt.

"L. D. MILTON,

"BLEUDA ROSSELL,

"V. C. WEITZEL,

"Committee on Resolutions."

"It was with deep regret that the Alumnae Association of the University of Maryland Hospital learned of the death of Miss Blanche Pitman, which occurred at the University of Maryland Hospital, Baltimore, October 22, 1904.

"Miss Pitman graduated from the Training-School of the University of Maryland Hospital in the Class of 1899 and engaged in private nursing. It was while in the faithful discharge of duty that she contracted typhoid fever, to which she succumbed after a brief illness. Be it therefore

"Resolved, That in the death of Miss Pitman this association has lost a valued and much esteemed member and the profession an ardent, competent, and conscientious worker.

"Resolved, That we extend to her bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, to THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF NURSING, and recorded upon the minutes of the alumnae.

"ELIZA B. GRAY,

"VENIE C. WEITZEL,

"MARGARET S. BROWN,

"Committee on Resolutions."