DIED, in Boston, December 26, 1902, Miss Florence Hutcheson.

Miss Hutcheson was a graduate of Bellevue Hospital, Class of 1886, and for the last year and a half occupied the position of superintendent of nurses of the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital Training-School for Nurses.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Alumnae Association of the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital:

" WHEREAS, Inasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our co-worker, Miss Florence Hutcheson,

" Resolved, That her many sterling qualities and her devotion to her profession will be remembered by all who knew her.

" Resolved, That we, the members of this association, extend to her family our heartfelt sympathy.

" Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her family, printed in THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF NURSING, and recorded in the minutes of the association.

" MARY F. FOWLER,

" HARRIET FORBES,

" HELEN F. CARL."

THE members of the Alumnae Association of the Illinois Training-School for Nurses record with sorrow the loss by death of two of their number, Miss Hannah Niehof and Miss Bertha Lentz.

Miss Niehof died on December 5 at Manila. She had been in the Philippines for several years, first as an army nurse, later holding a position in the Woman's Hospital at Manila. She was buried in the National Cemetery there.

Miss Lentz died in New York City on January 5 after a painful and hopeless illness. She had been doing private nursing there for some years. She was buried at Zanesville, O.

DIED, at Dividing Creek, N. J., January 30, 1903, Mrs. Anna Bergan Anderson.

Mrs. Anderson was a graduate of the Class of 1900 of the Paterson General Hospital Training-School.

After graduating she took a position as head nurse in the Nyack Hospital, giving up the position to marry Rev. Frank Anderson in September, 1901, and went to live at Dividing Creek, N. J., where she died.
