

the PID Forum

Pidforum.org is a global information and discussion platform about persistent identifiers (PIDs).

What can you find on pidforum.org?

- PID best practices, news and blogs
- Examples of PID Graphs
- Announcements on events including PIDapalooza – the open festival of persistent identifiers
- Information on the PID Policy for the European Open Science Cloud (EOSC)

Learn about PIDs on the Knowlegde Hub

The Knowlegde Hub is also part of the PID Forum and contains PID training materials. It is the place to learn about PIDs whether you are a researcher, librarian, funder, publisher or developer. It also offers materials in languages other than English!
