

Test Driven Code Review - blinded

(untitled)

ID 2

Your answers will help us.

We are a team of researchers investigating code reviews. We are trying to understand the order in which developers review test and production files and why.

We would be grateful if you could participate in our survey on this subject.

With this survey:

- we ask you the order in which you review files
- your answers will only be used in aggregated and anonymized form
- you will be done in less than 2 minutes

Thank you!
