Logistics

- Daily emails will include highlights for each day
- Sched will include the latest information including links to sessions
- Networking and opportunities to talk to sponsors on Wonder.Me everyday (more on that in a second)
- Check out posters at <https://or2021.openrepositories.org/posters/>, comment and join the Minute Madness tomorrow!

Code of Conduct

<https://or2021.openrepositories.org/open-repositories-code-of-conduct/>

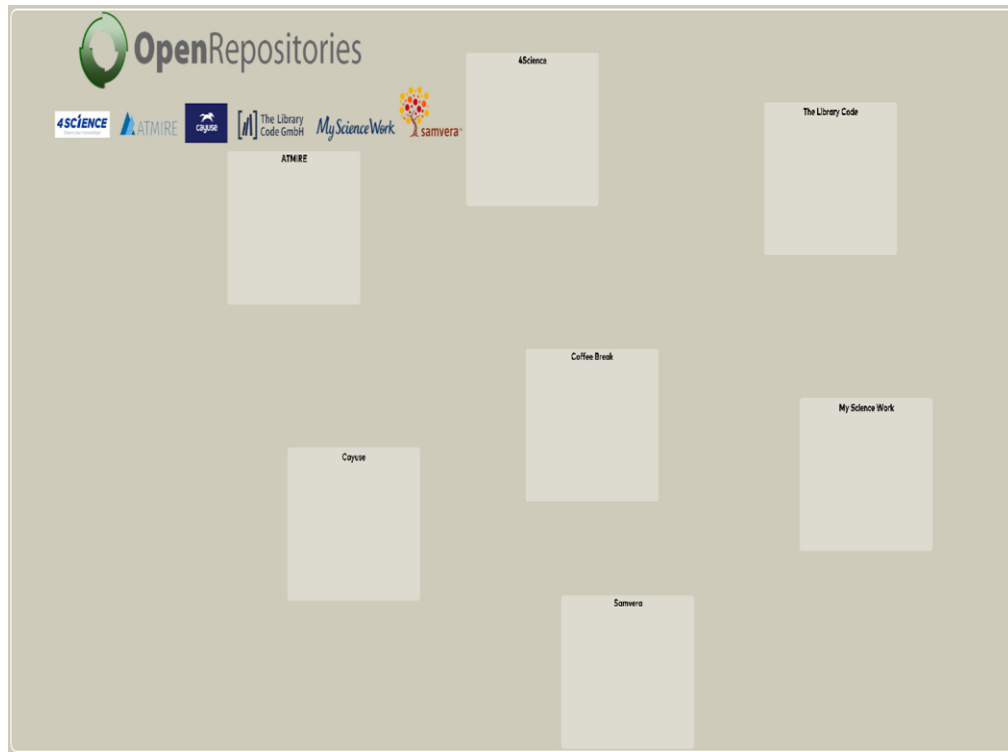

Open Repositories is dedicated to providing a welcoming and positive experience for everyone whether in a formal or informal session. OR participants come from all over the world and have a variety of professional and personal and social backgrounds. We treat all with dignity and respect.

We do not tolerate harassment or discrimination in any form.

If you experience or witness a violation of the Code of the Conduct, direct message the Zoom host or Wonder.me host and email or2021-codeofconduct@googlegroups.com. We reserve the right to take immediate action to remedy disruptive behavior.

Networking platform

- We have hour long networking sessions on Wonder on Tuesday-Thursday. You will find the link and password in Sched.
- This is an opportunity to have conversations with our sponsors!
- When you enter Wonder you will be asked to enter a name and take a photo.
- You can use arrow keys to move around the room and join a conversation by moving close to the attendees.
- Code of Conduct applies here as well. There will be hosts in every session.
