

Visual Storytelling for Language Documentation 2020-21

Question Group

Project Leads

Dr Margit Bowler
Dr Vera Hohaus

Student Investigator

Juliet Whitehouse
Xinhui Zhang (Kellyanne)
Ziyue Xu (Zoe)

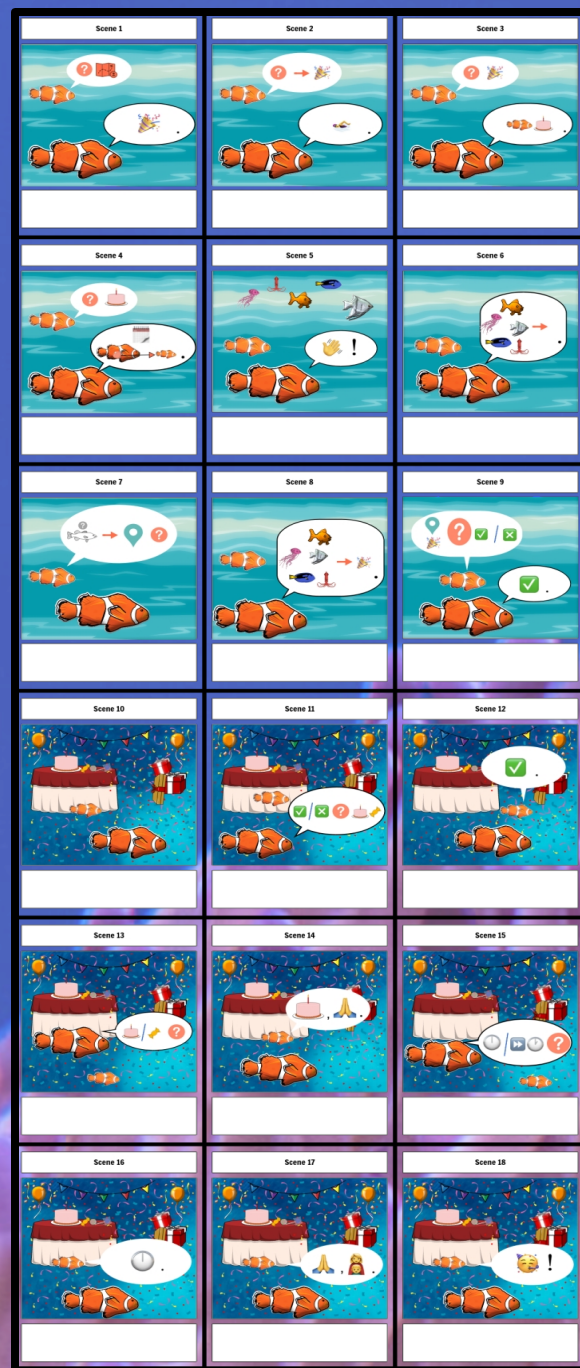

Institution

University of Manchester

Date

June 2021

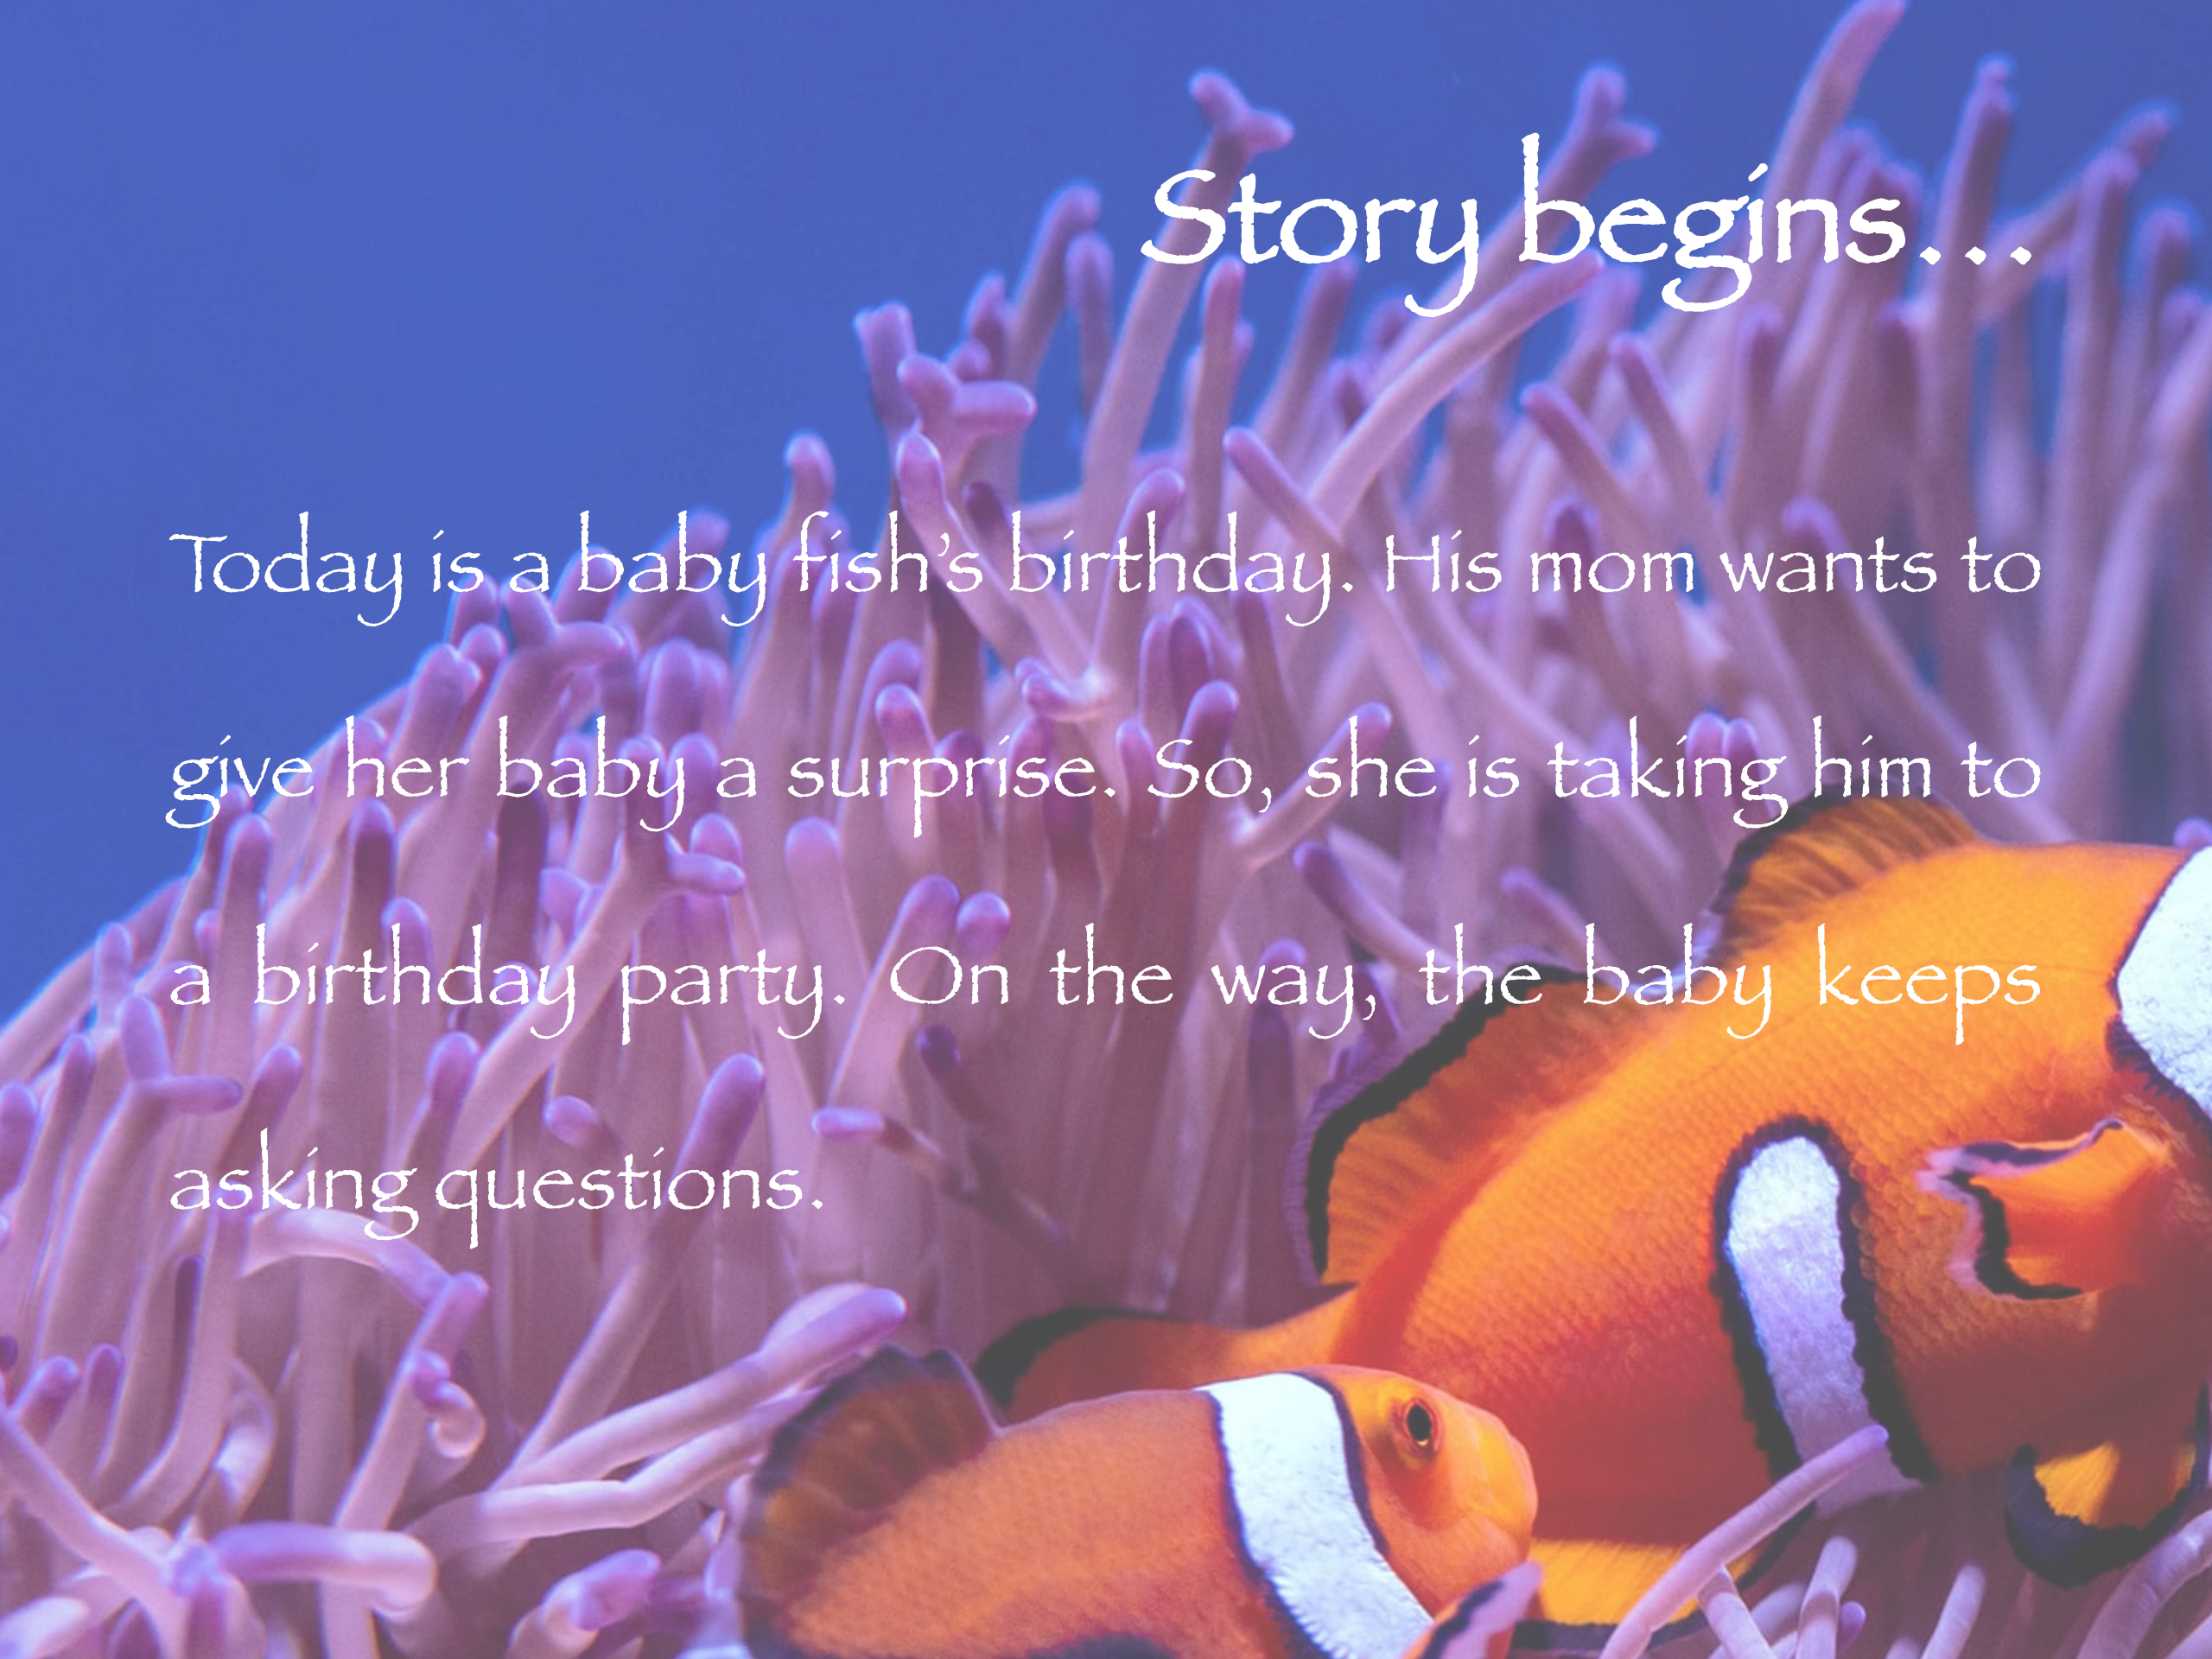

Overview

- Be natural & Just relax!
- Describe in your native language.
- Meeting will be recorded.
- E-voucher available!

Story begins...

Today is a baby fish's birthday. His mom wants to give her baby a surprise. So, she is taking him to a birthday party. On the way, the baby keeps asking questions.

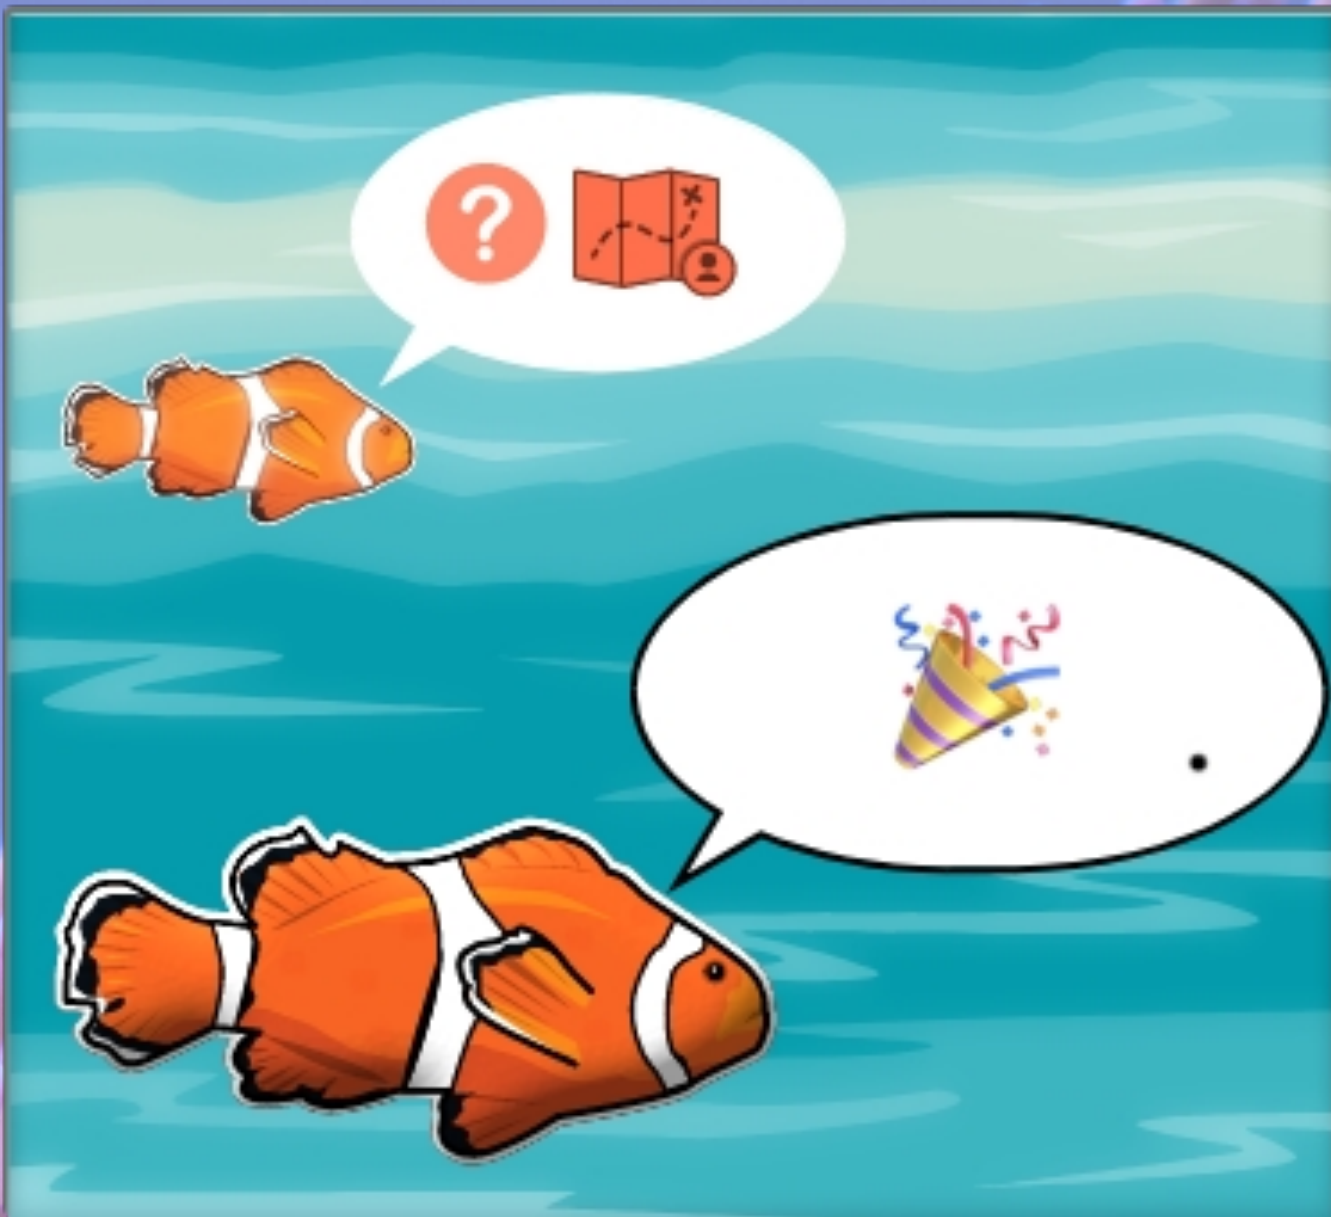

Scene 1

Baby:

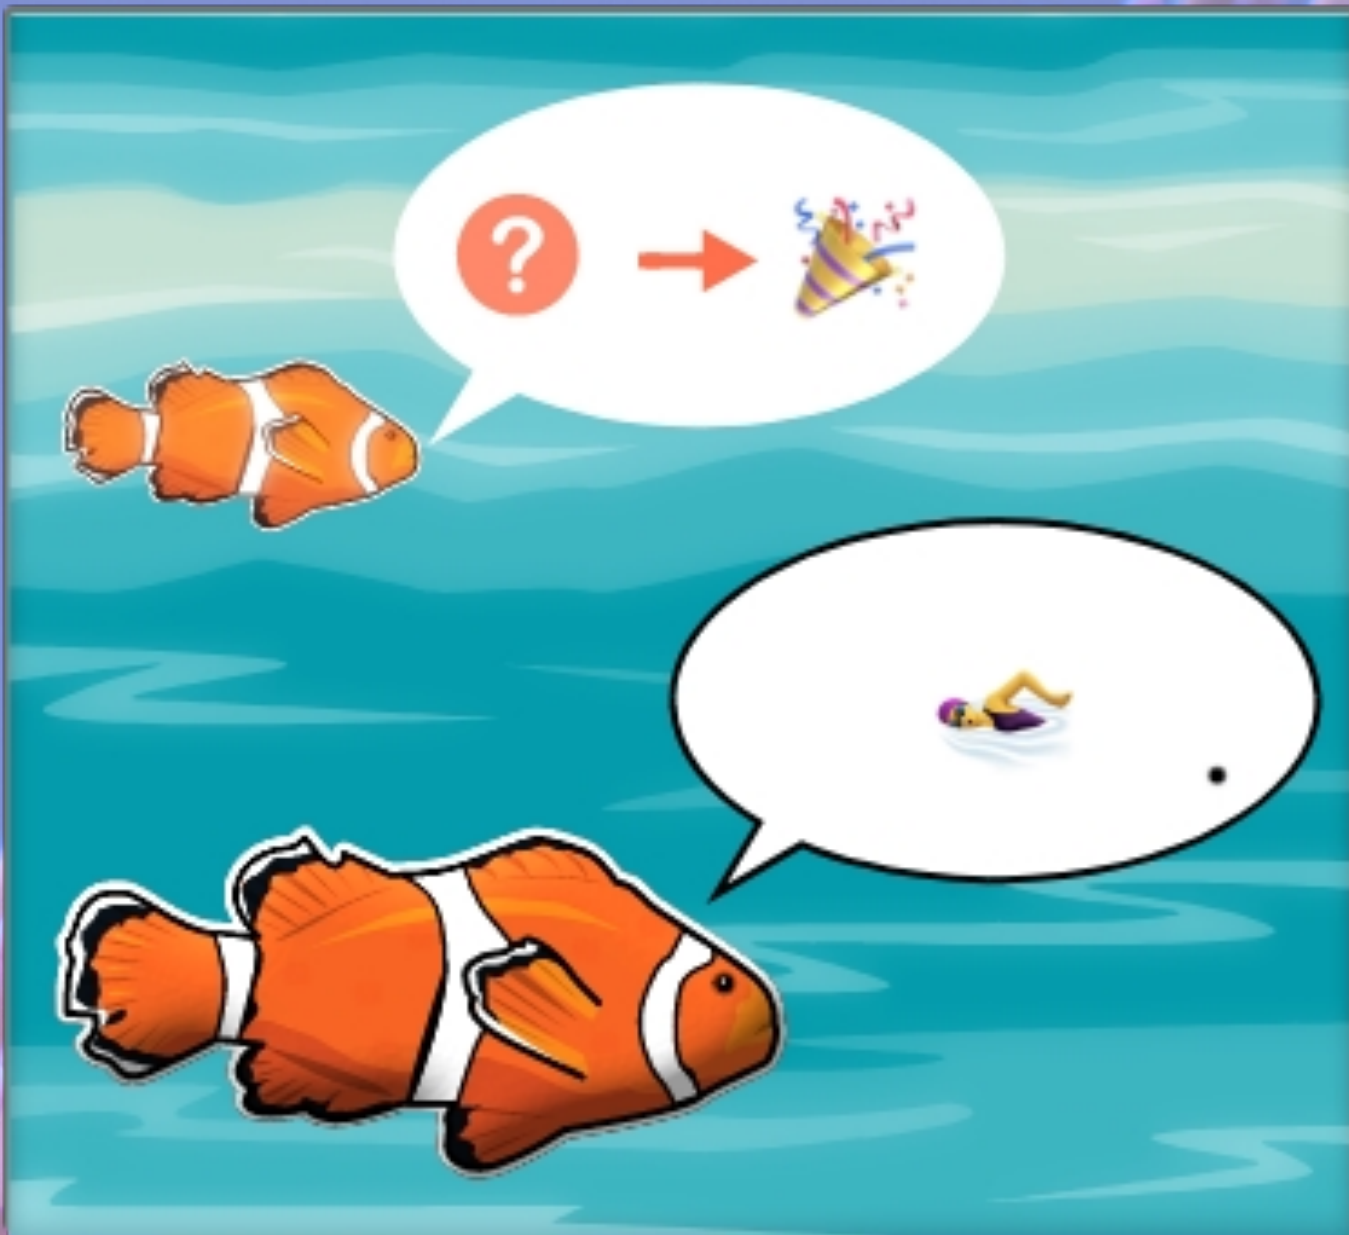

Where are we going?

Mom:

We are going to a party.

Scene 2

Baby:

How are we going to get there?

Mom:

We are swimming there.

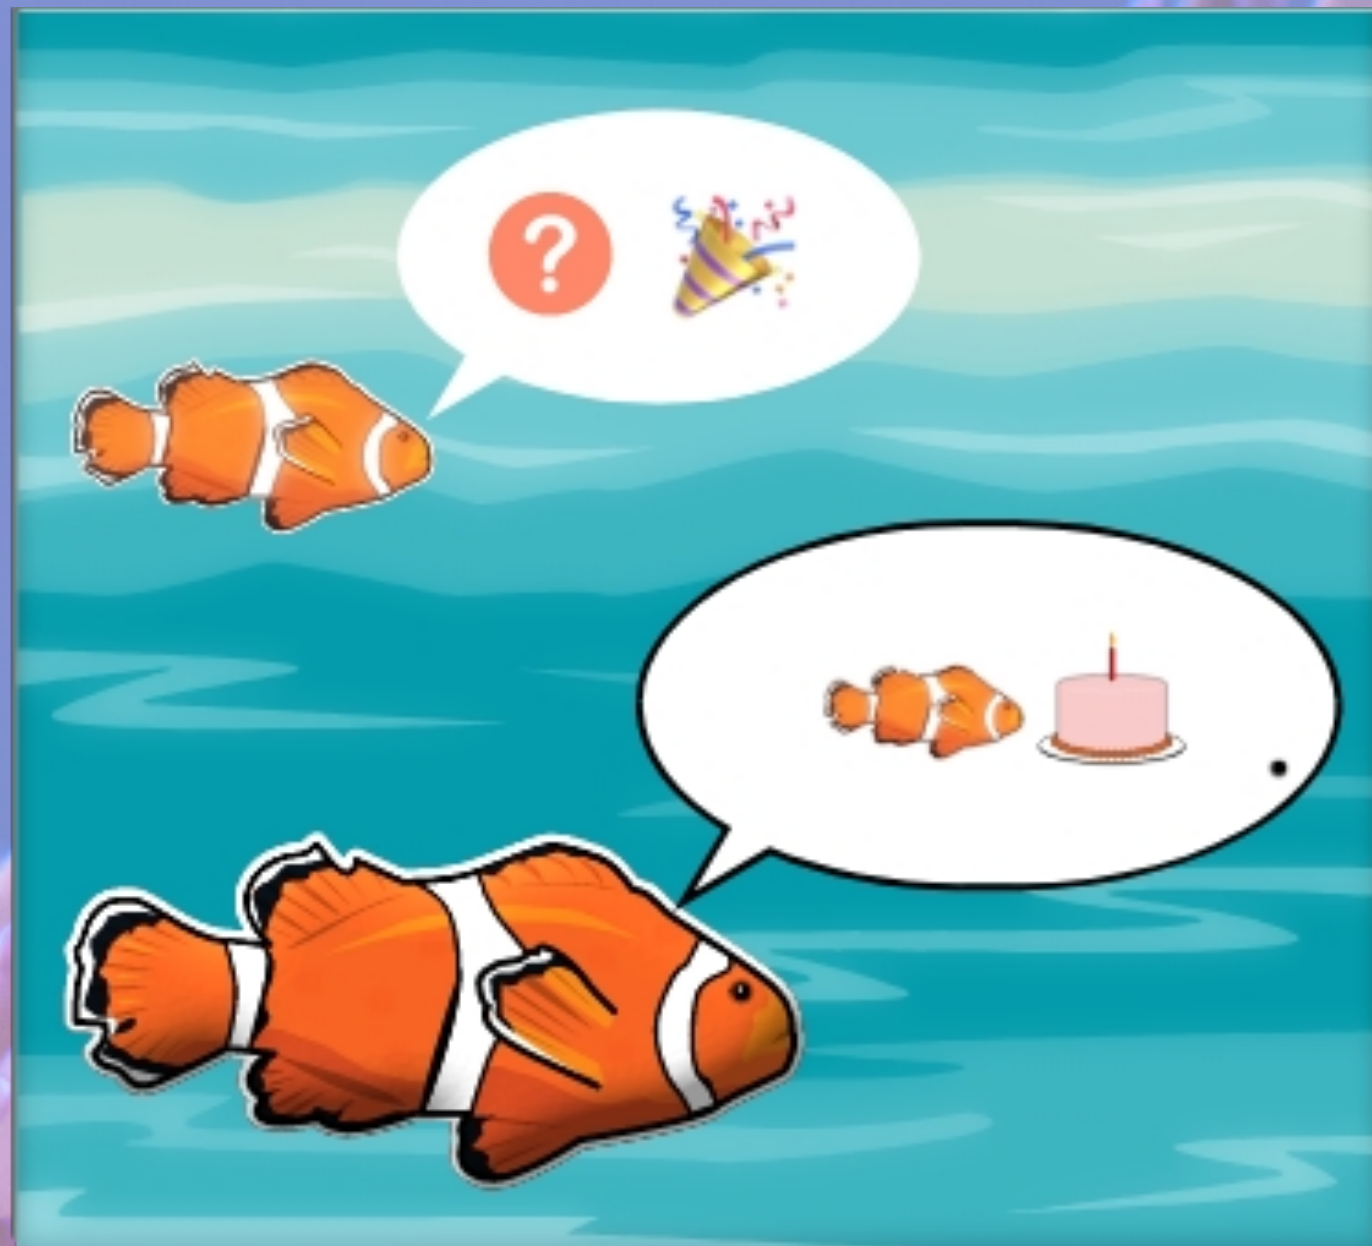

Scene 3

Baby:

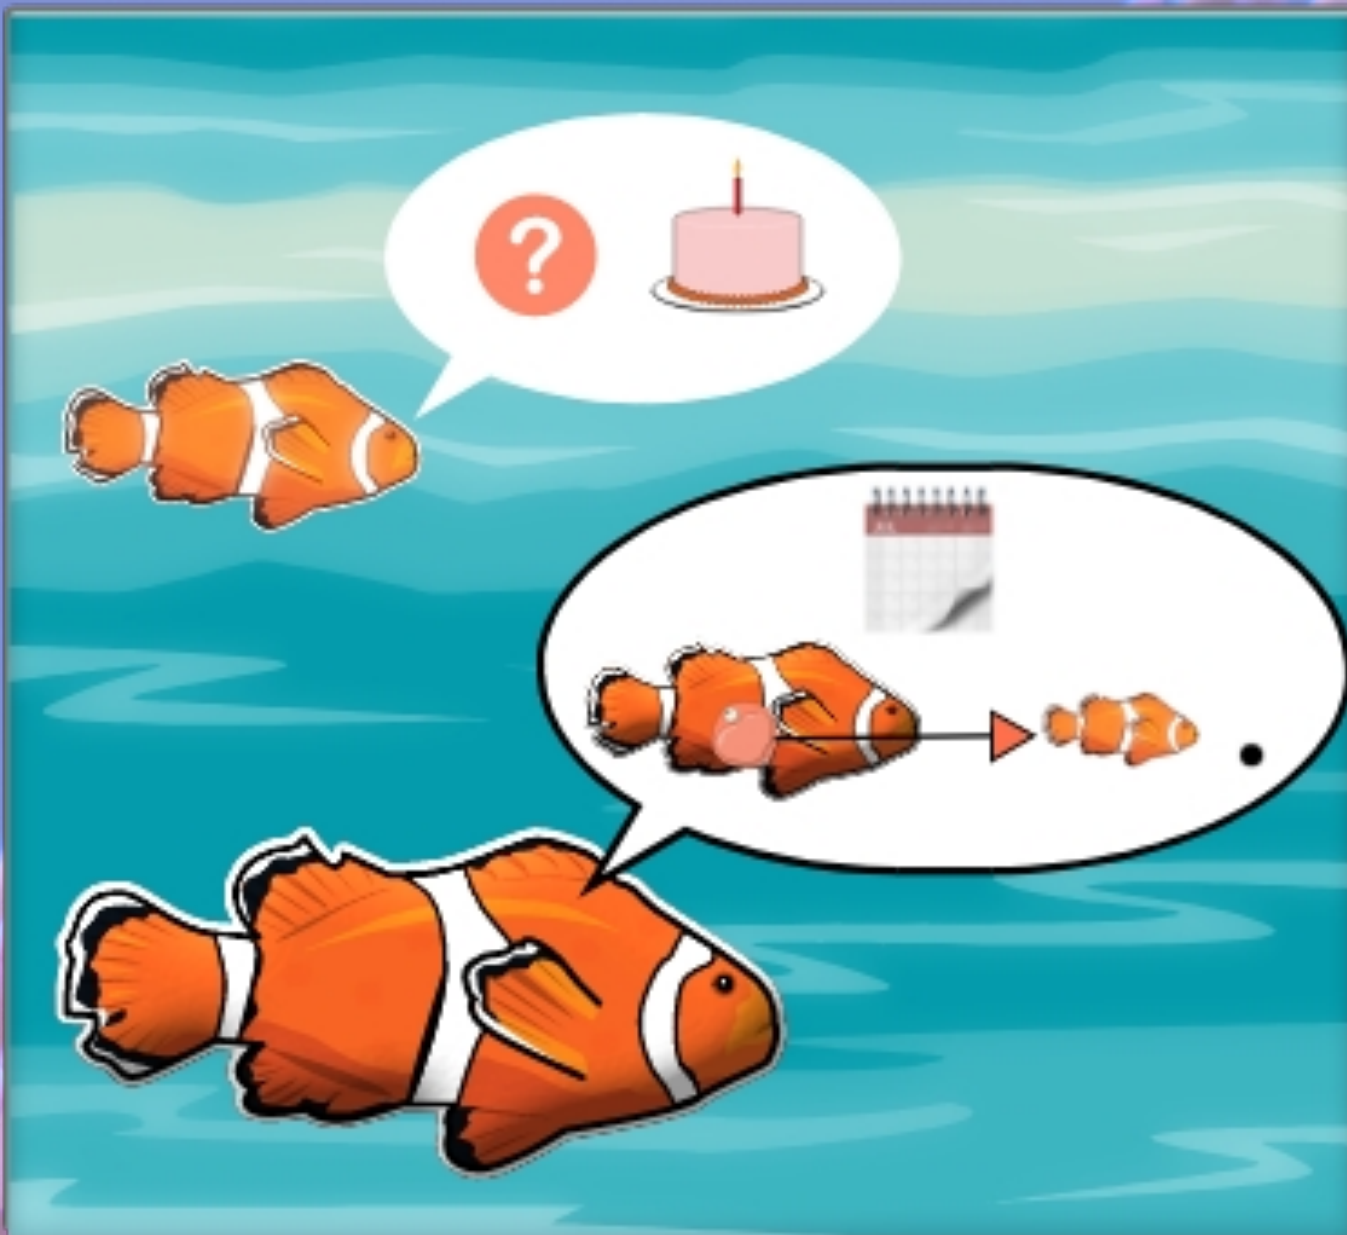

Why are we going there?

Mom:

Because it is your birthday.

Scene 4

Baby:

What is a birthday?

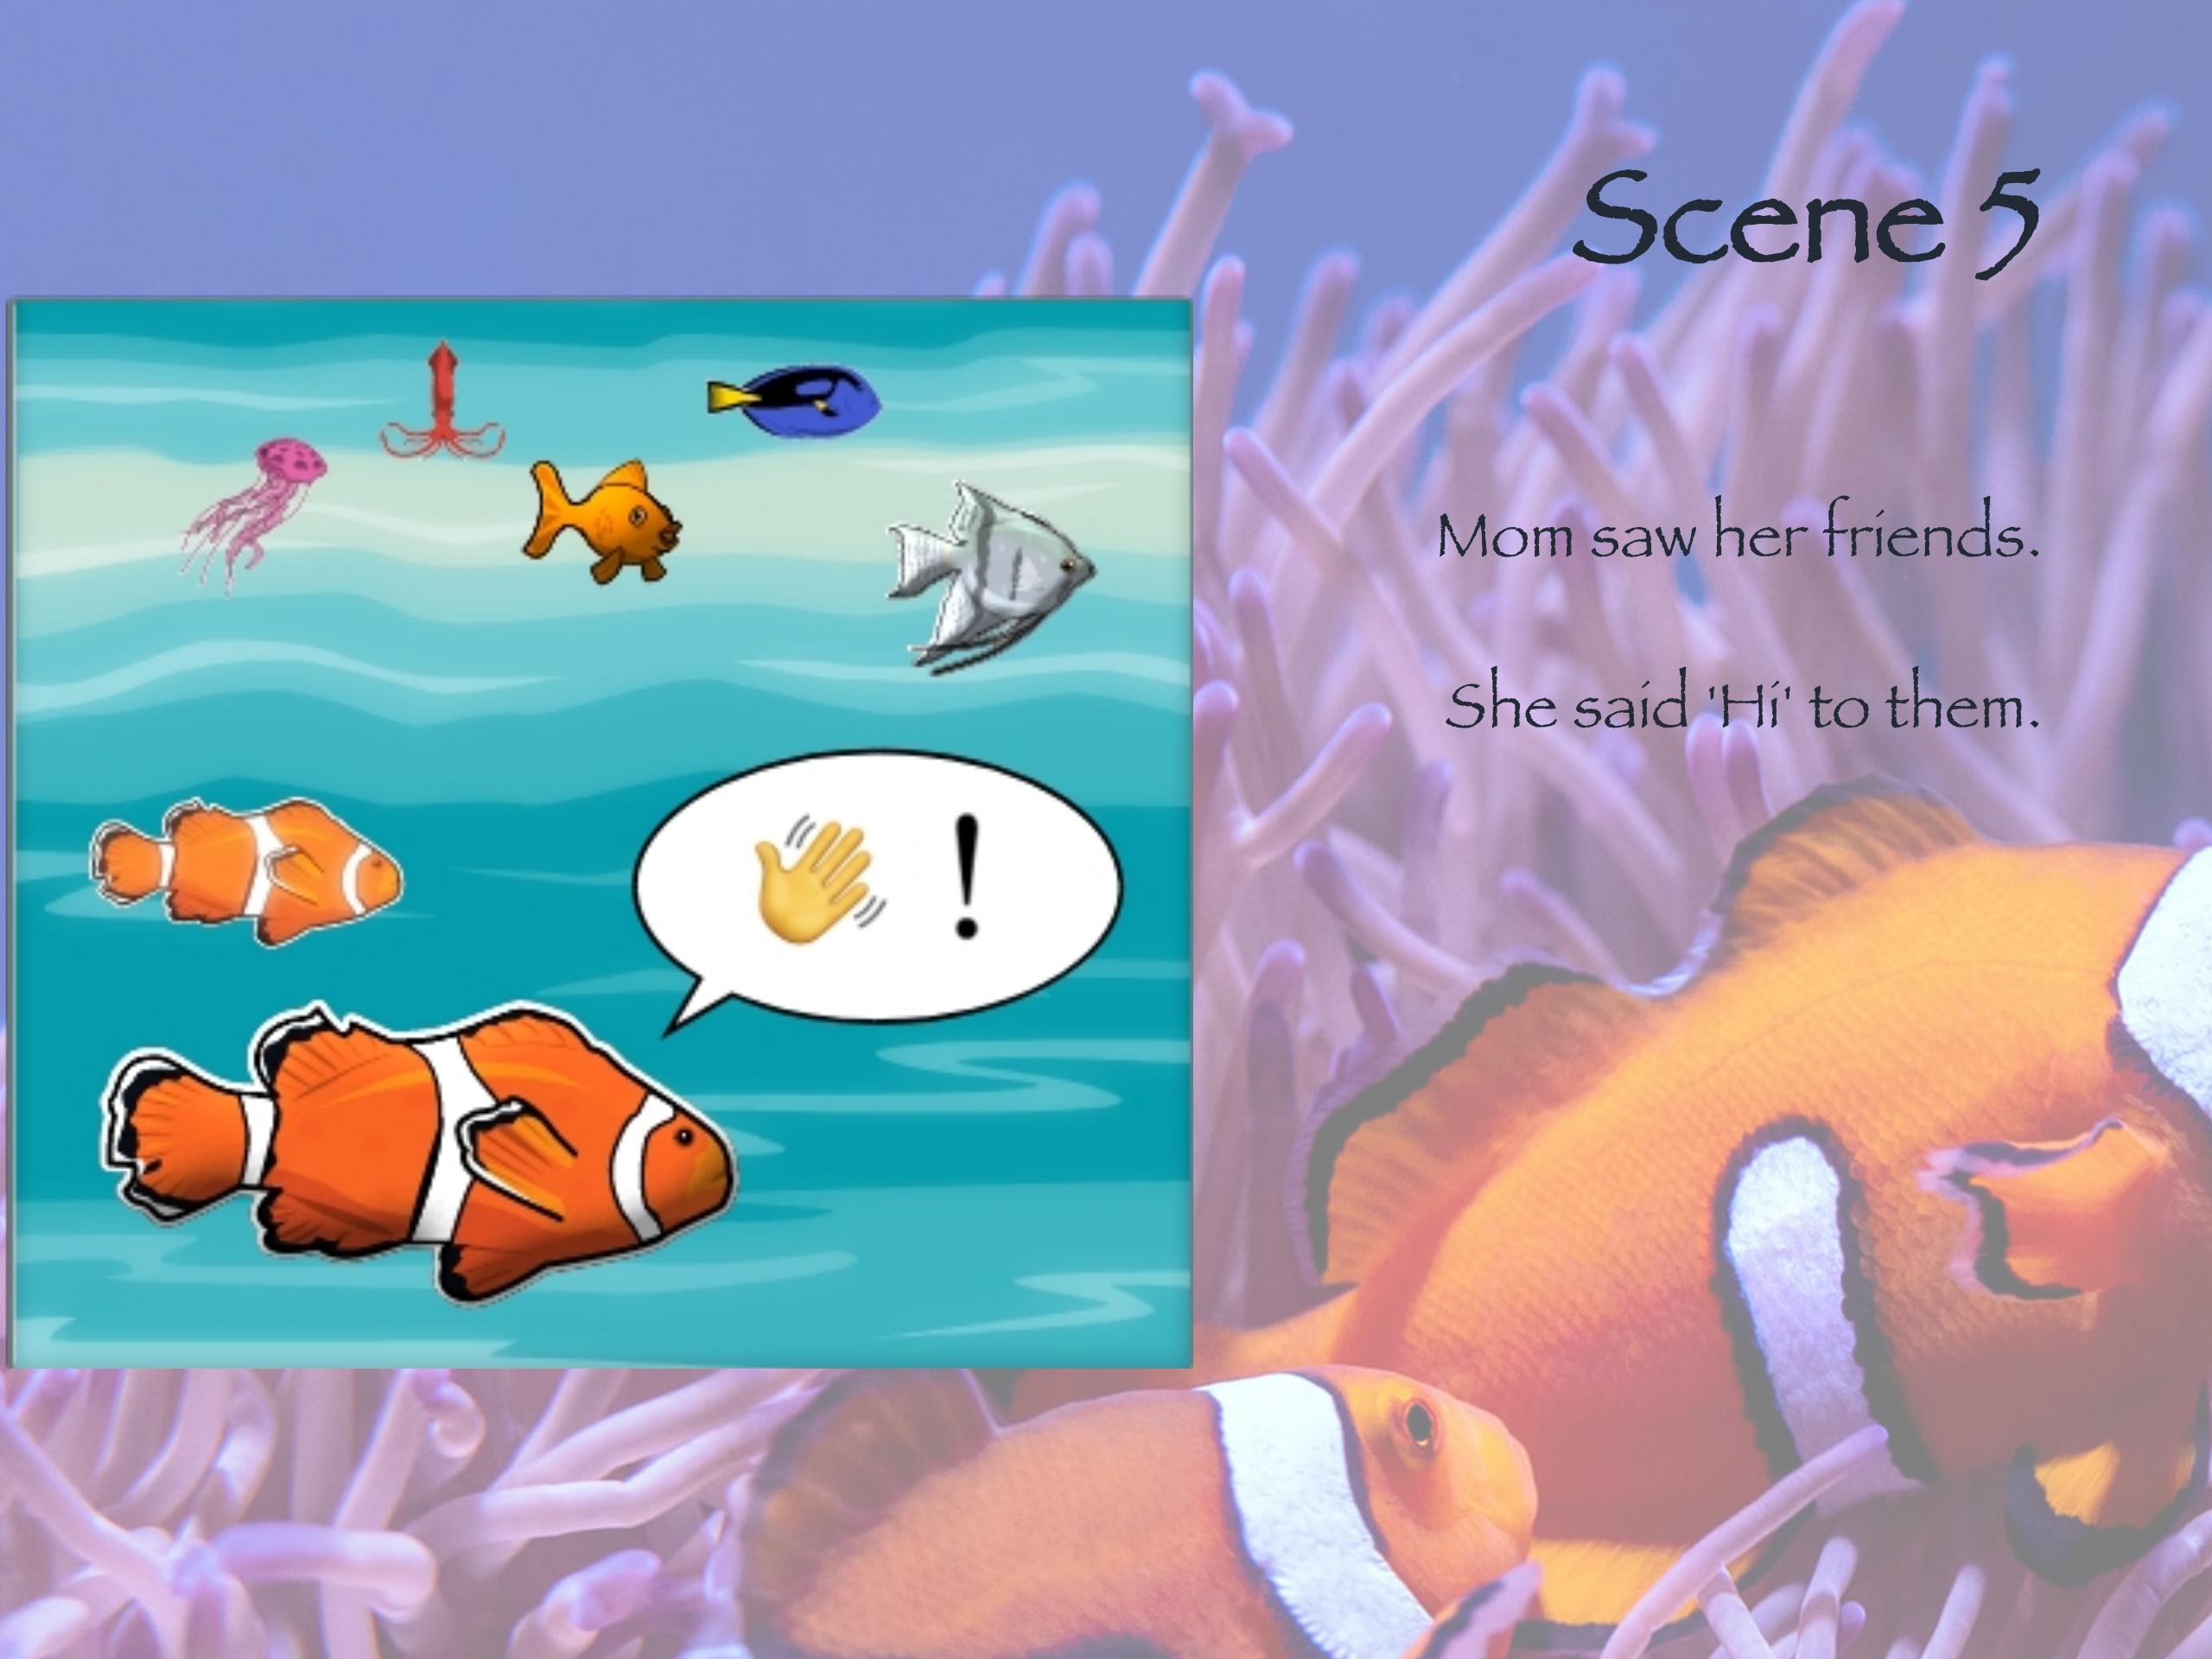

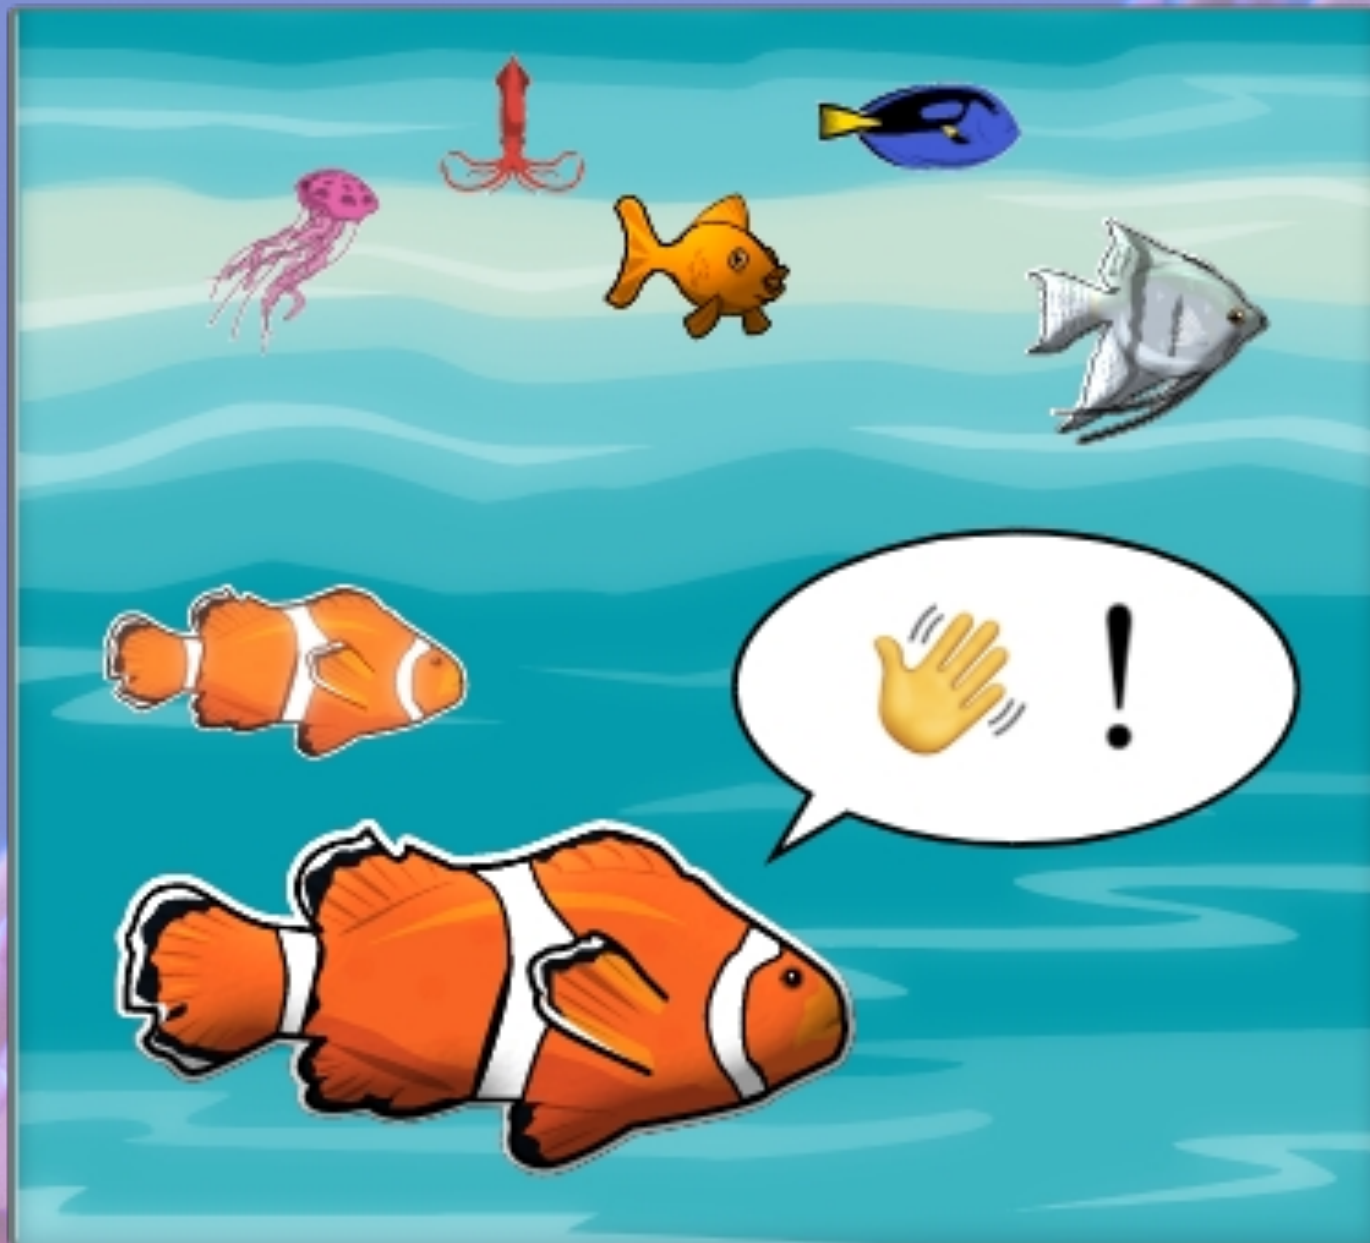

Mom:

It is the day when you were born.

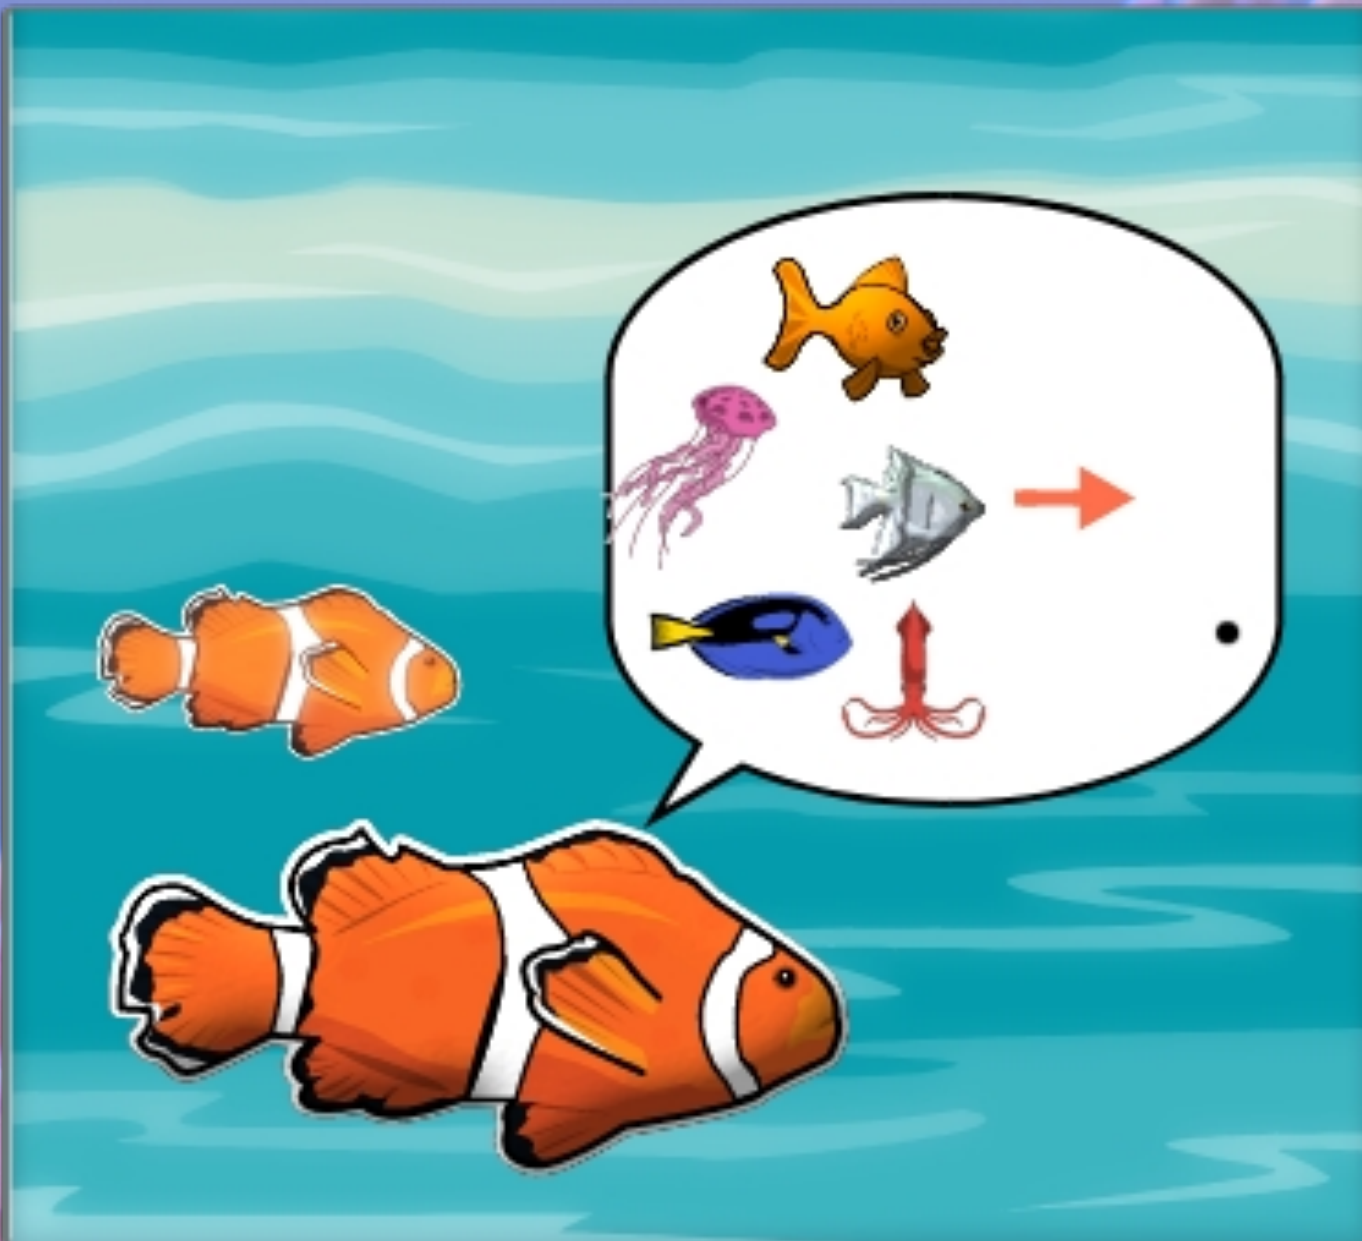

Scene 5

Mom saw her friends.

She said 'Hi' to them.

Scene 6

Mom:

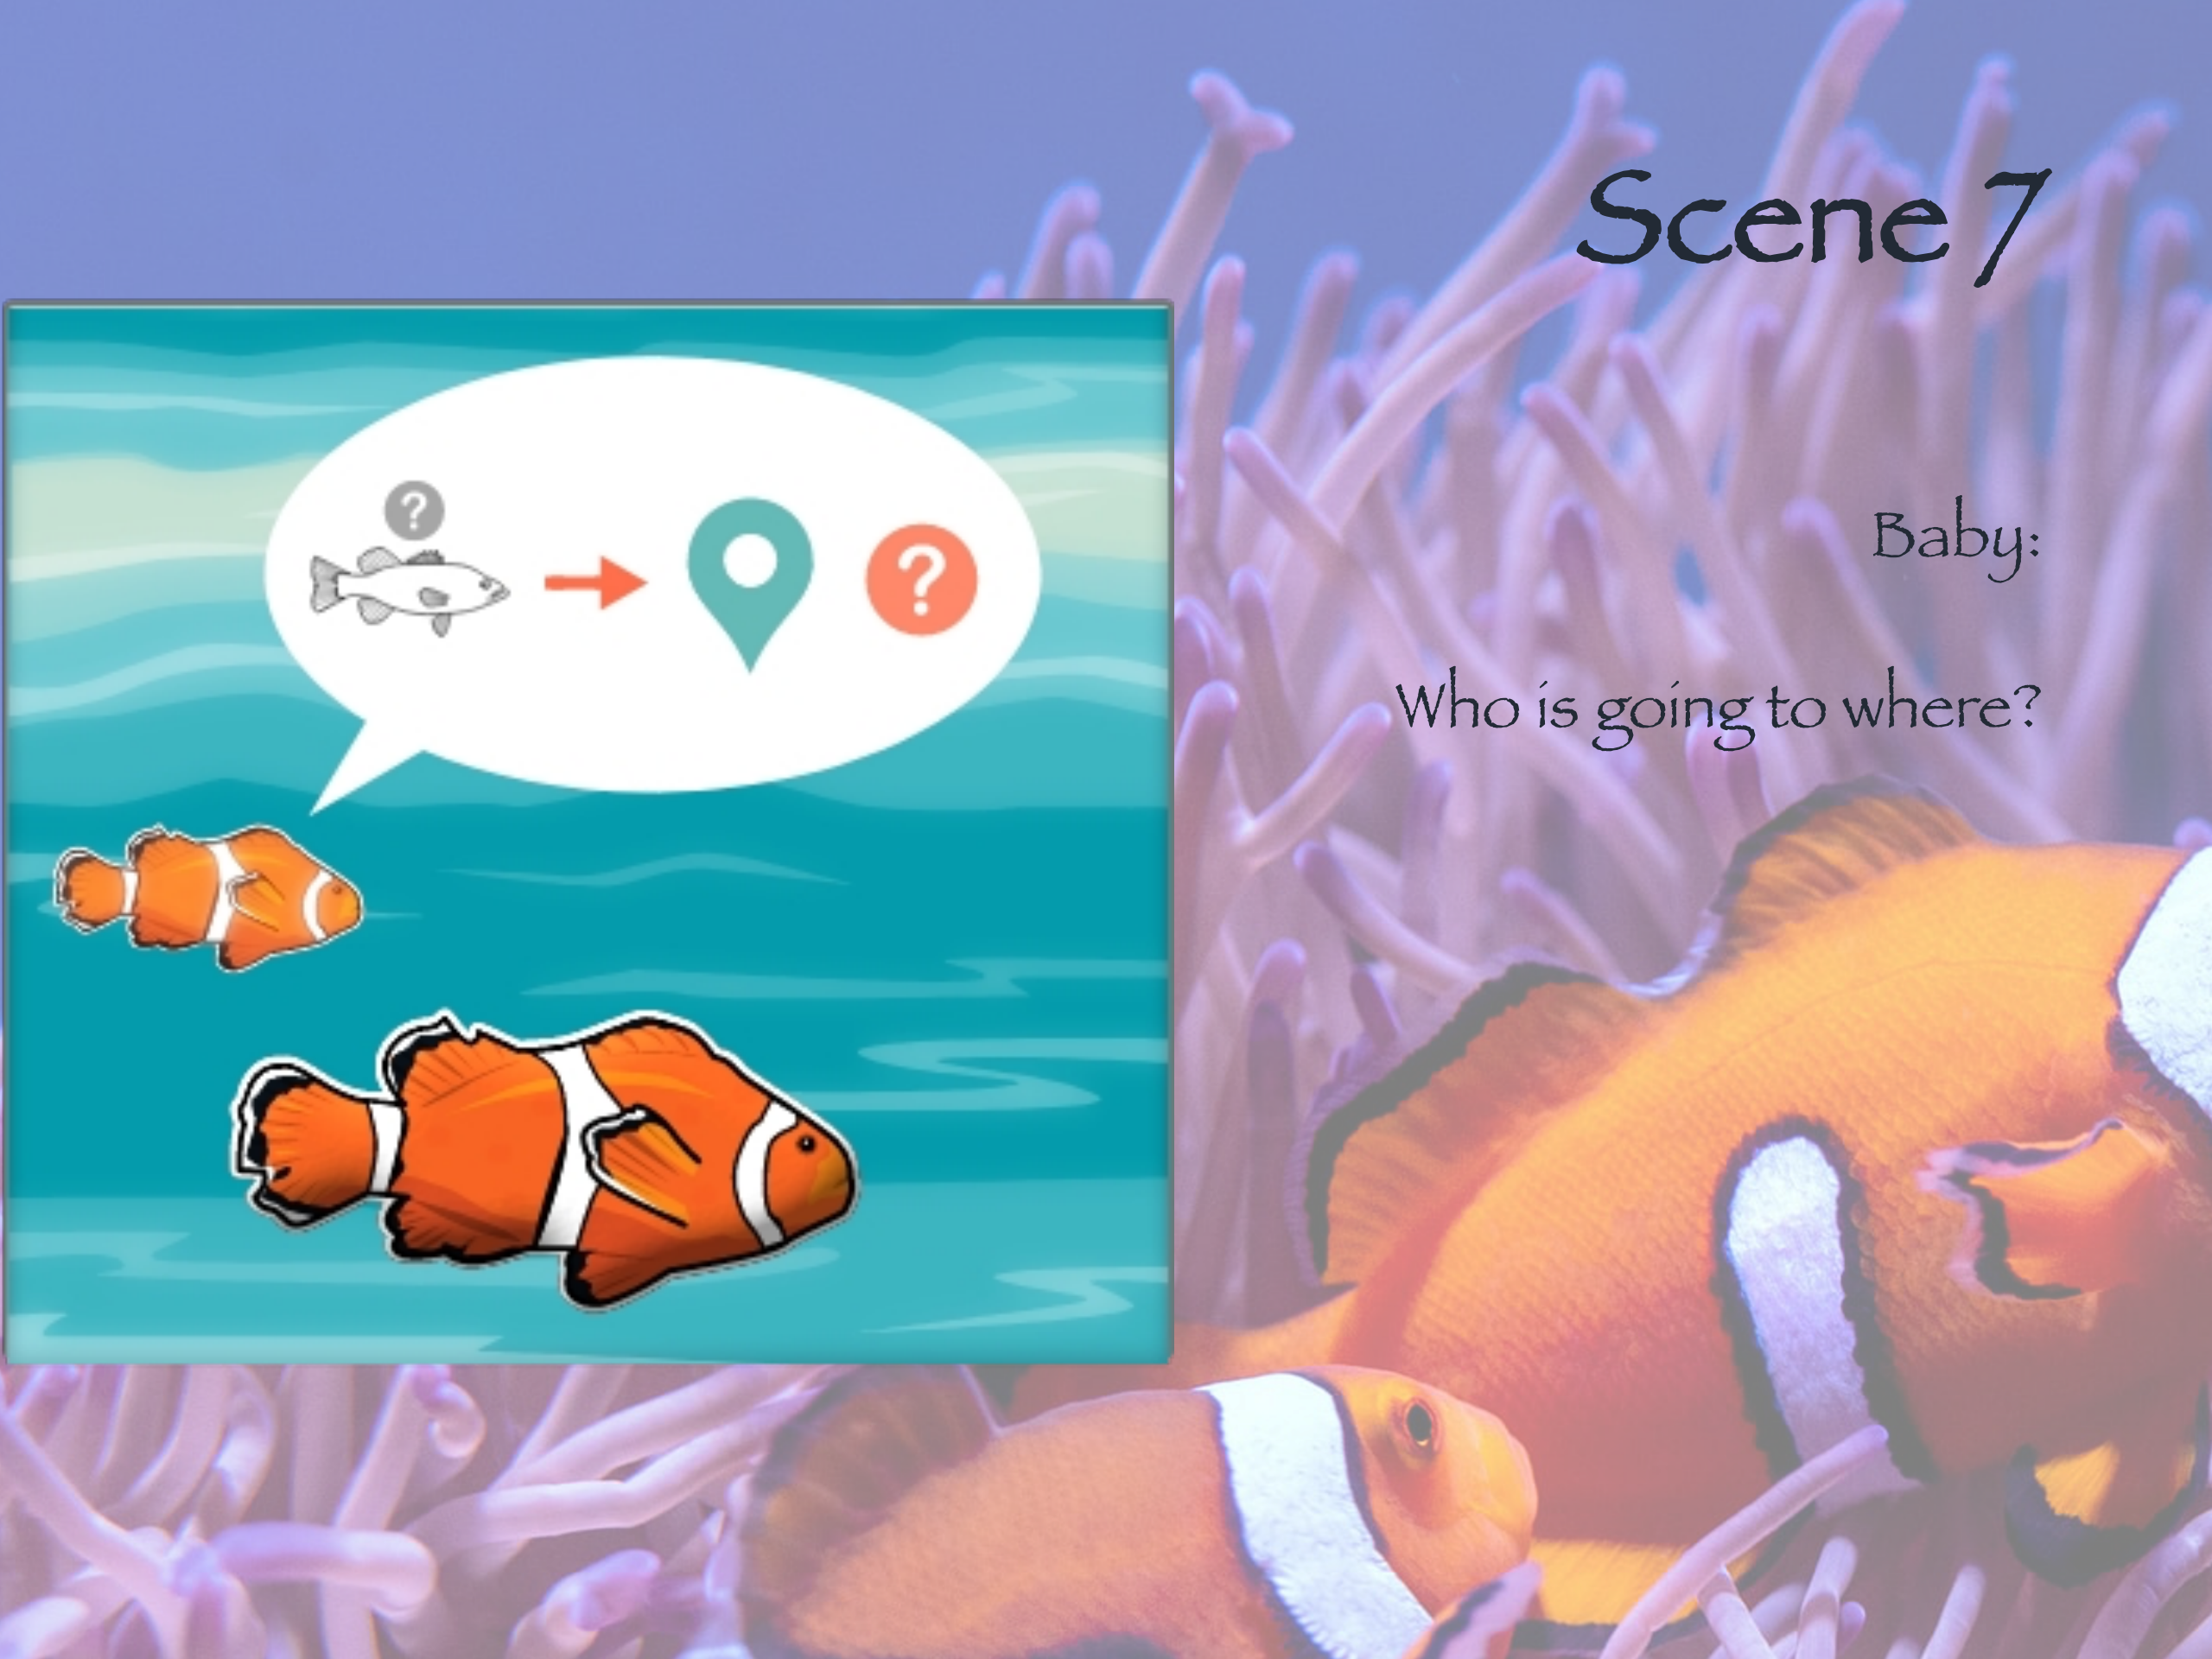

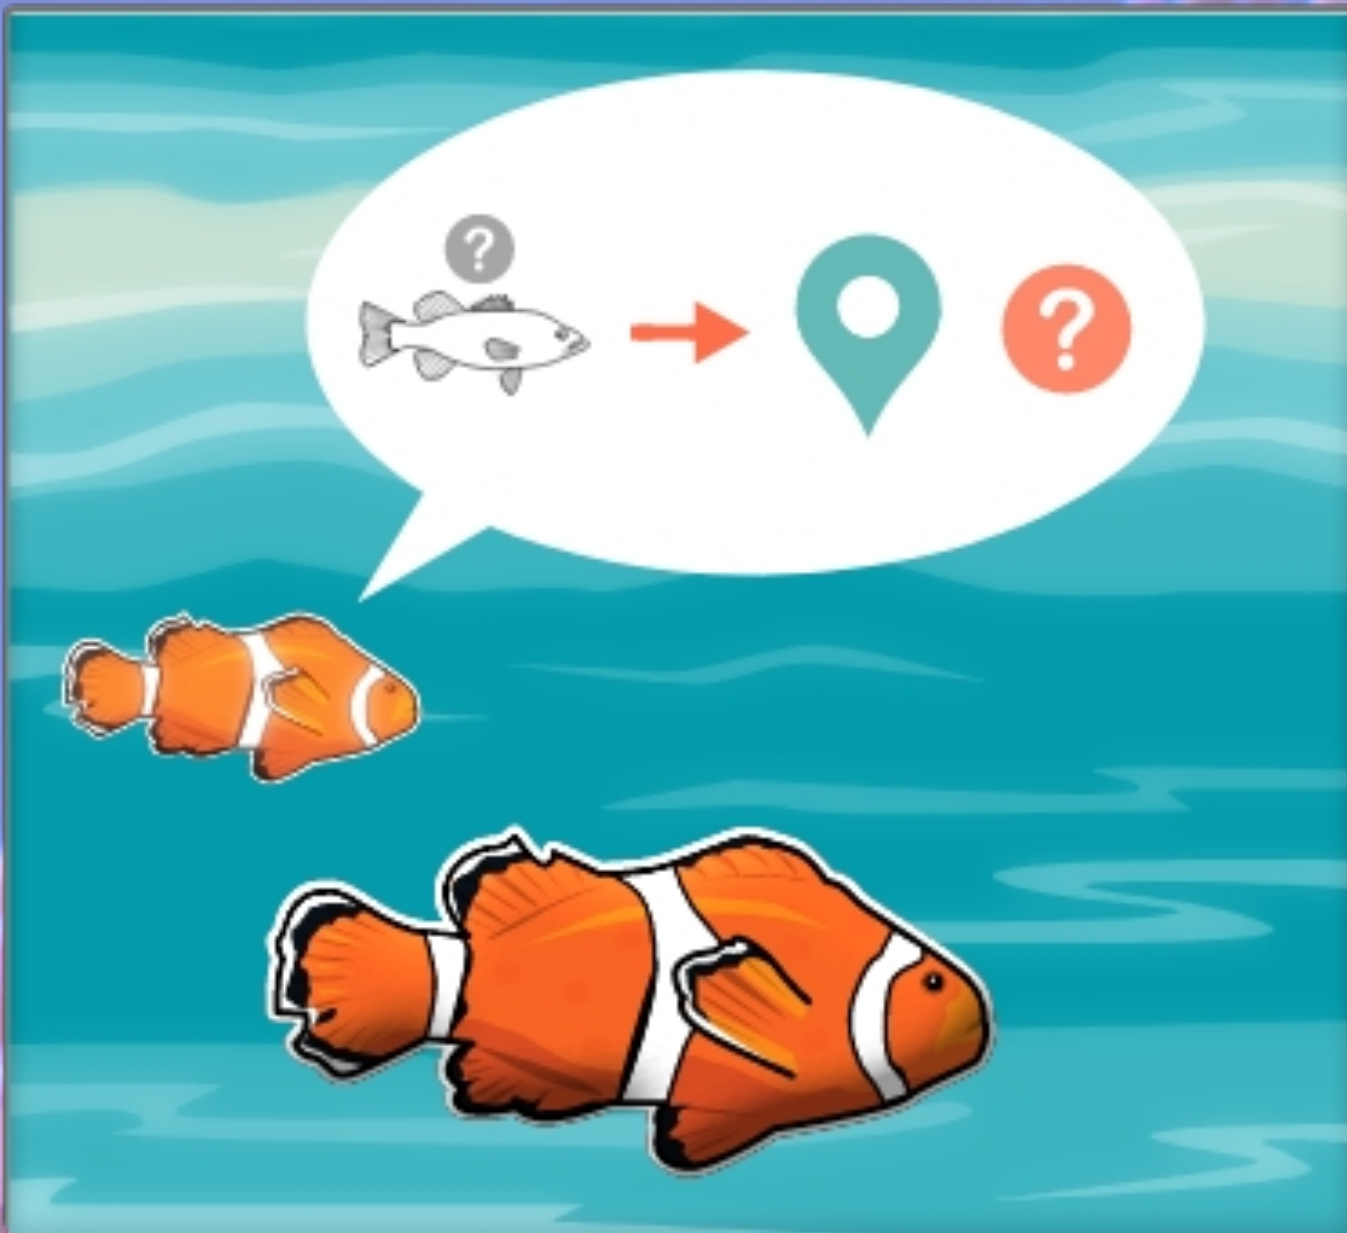

They will go as well.

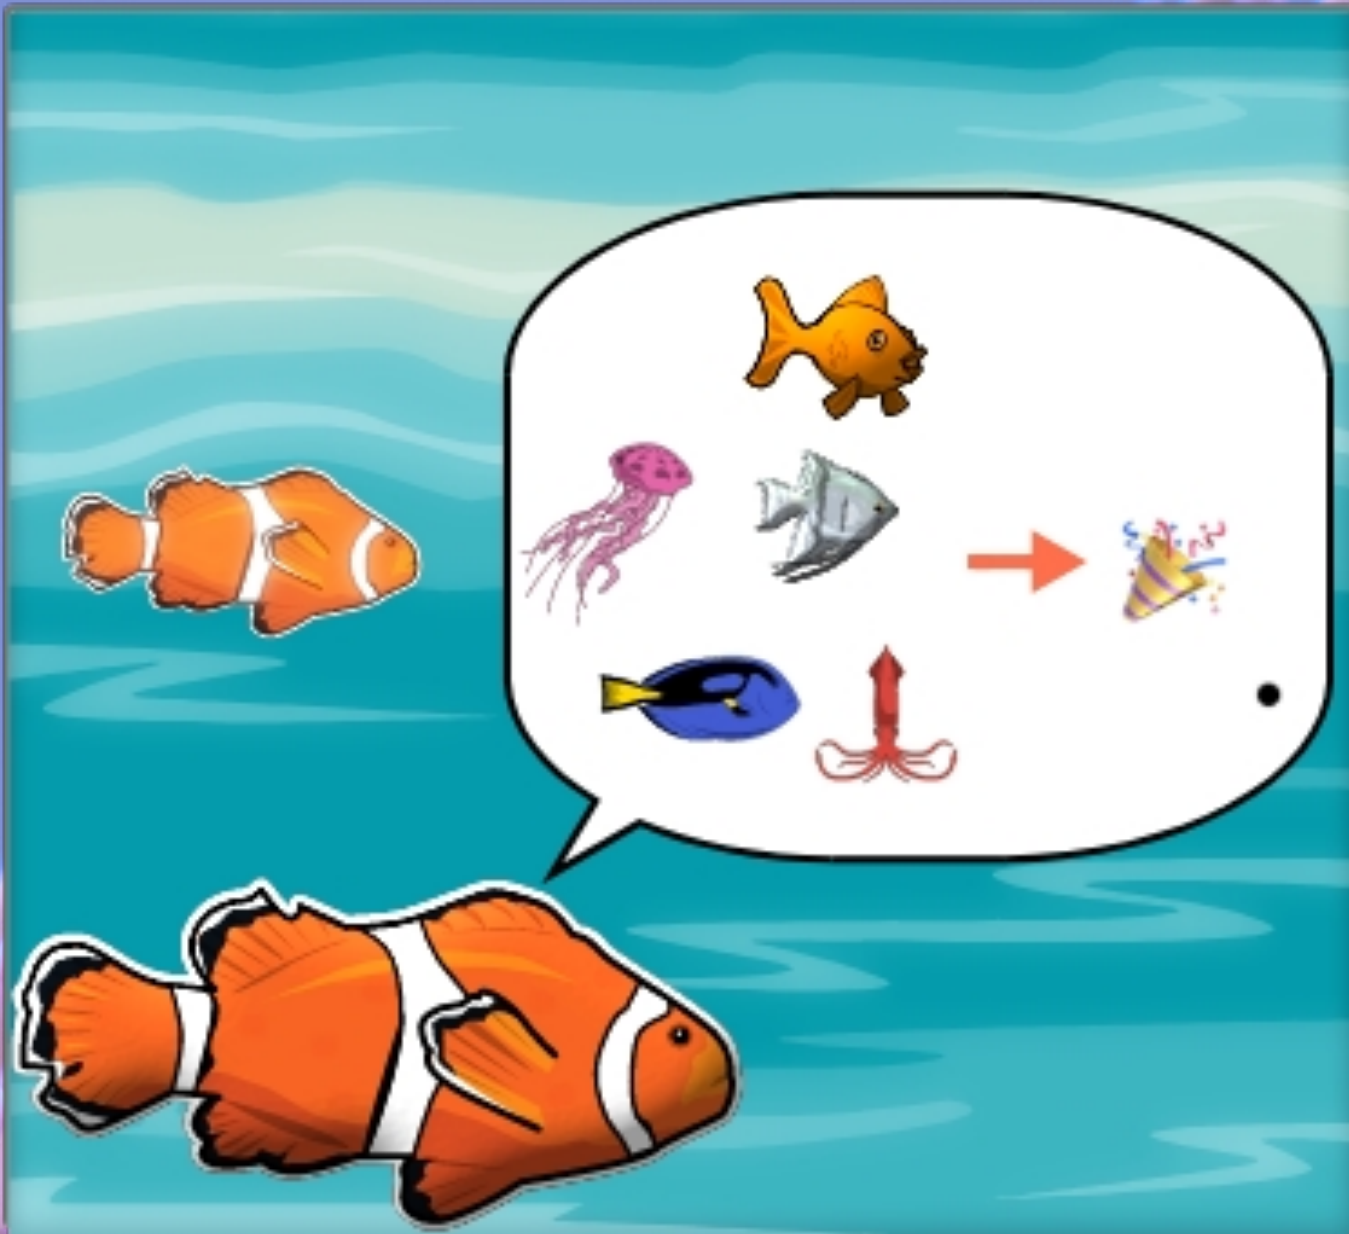

Scene 7

Baby:

Who is going to where?

Scene 8

Mom:

My friends,
they are going to the party.

Scene 9

Baby:

Are we almost there?

Mom:

Yes.

Story continues...

Scene 10

Baby and mom arrive at the party.

Scene 11

Mom:

Do you want some cake or sweets?

Scene 12

Baby:

Yes.

Scene 13

Mom:

Which one do you want,
cake or sweets?

Scene 14

Baby:

Cake, please.

Scene 15

Mom:

Do you want it now or later?

Scene 16

Baby:

I want it now.

Scene 17

Baby:

Thanks, mom.

Scene 18

Baby:

What a great day!

Thank you!

