

Trialed in Court: An anthology

In honor to Nick Flynn

Arjun Dahal

Mental Asylum of Education

arjundahalard.thereason@gmail.com

Trialed in court-1

The woodpecker which had sat in the stem, of a tree,
denied woodcutter to cut the tree.

Both needed home and shelter.

Tried in court-2

A folly went to the court,

then shouted,

"My lord/Shrimaan/Your honor....."

Each person has their own individual world.

I studied moralness, and ethics to understand them.

Did I understand my own individual world, or of others?

Trialed in court-3

Some fellows shouted,
about commonness in laws,
not to develop others
but to ruin the developed laws.

They are the fellows,
who thinks themselves as advocates, celebrating freedom to speech.

Trialed in court-4

Before and after,
any topic that we discuss why it isn't realized by peoples, including the fellows,
who likes to wear Tika,
provided by others.

Laws fail,
due to failure of individuals to be lawful,
and why question, brings reason for Trial.

Trailed in court-5

Voice of fellows,

not so clear,

I did heard.

Should I had too hear clearly,

or should I had to urge fellows to speak clearly or should I had to let them know,

I did heard their talks or should I hadn't had to hear.

They talked,

and I heard.

What would laws talk?

Trialed in court-6

Daily life,
and livelihood
seeks,
how to fuse economy, moralness,
laws, and humanity,
fulfilling various needs.

Would courts be empty,
when moralness does prevails,
and crime seems to be absence?

Trialed in court-7

I write text messages,
like as of essay,
in different lines,
making it lengthy.

I even texted,
not to reply me, and found
I completed formality,
so that other fellows can talk,
it was me who told them, not to rely.

Can lack of responses be Trialed in Courts, or the problems that occurs due to lack of responses?

Trailed in court-8

Electricity goes off, while watching television
water goes off,
while bathing,
even in tubewell,
sometimes water doesn't come.

Would duty to pay taxes,
bring rights for convenient livelihood?

Trialed in court-9

We read detergents aren't bio-degradable, but it cleans stains in clothes, better then that of soaps.

Who is criminal,
for polluting the environment?

Trialed in court-10

In packet of cigarette, the picture mentioning caution, pays the taxes to government, for the addiction in peoples, in name of advertisement of cancer.

Trialed in court-11

What would,
an empty constitution do,
if not filled?

Trialed in court-12

When Banning the porn websites, wouldn't it violate the right to learn,
and right to education,
to know,
how is any child born?

Trialed in court-13

What would court say to fellows, who denies to learn?

Trailed in court-14

Passing the poorly made road, for public use

effects,

passing of vehicles in that road,

and invites disaster to make peoples "passed away".

Trialed in court-15

Beautiful holy books,
when aren't touched,
to provide statements
for truthfulness and falsehood, would that mean untouchability?

Trailed in court-16

Does religion and science, condemns masturbation as sin as a killing,
of an unborn child,
who could had born,
if sexual intercourse had been done,
for survival of sperm and eggs,
in their natural habitat.

Trailed in court-17

Habits,
that gradually forms,
and results addiction
are inevitable.

What would court consider,
good and bad,
to discuss about habits,
and to prevent addiction;
good or bad.

Trailed in court-18

Denied by religion,
would the science,
and sci-fi,
take time travellers,
if any,
to the court?