

Here is a big Moodle logo and then there are the categories here. Moodle is super well-structured for me. For example, when I click here, I see the titles above it. Then, here the lectures ... Lecture 1 for example here. Then I see also the other participants, but why we see the other participants I don't know exactly.