

At the moment, I am drawing the access options, i.e. after I have logged in. First, if I remember correctly, you have to choose the faculty. Then there are the respective subjects and then all the courses with all kinds of different names. Then you have to enter the password, that you already must have received. That means you cannot just enter. Then there you usually have all the pdf's and doc documents.