"So first, I'll draw the window. OK, from memory, this is really difficult. I'll just try to draw the menu bar. Now, I have drawn a menu bar and the Stud.IP-thing. I think, I'll start anew and try to do it from the start screen. Then I draw the message-window in the upper right corner. Sorry, I don't have colors. That's how far I get for the welcome screen. You see it every day, but still you cannot draw it from memory!"
