Italy

1st wave survey - 2021

ySKILLS

Age group

- 12-13 years: 39
- 14-15 years: 44
- 16-17 years: 17

(axis: 0 10 20 30 40 50)
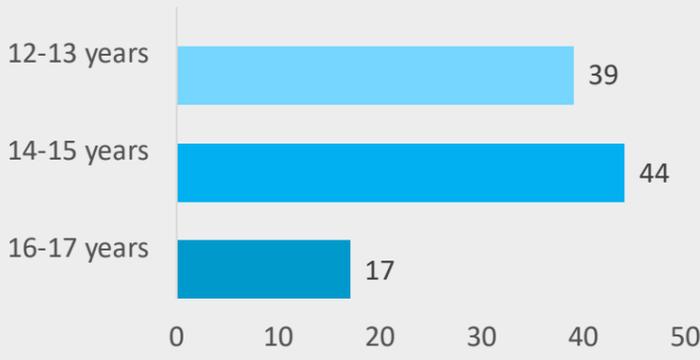

> Data collection in Italy was carried out in 6 schools and involved 965 students

SES distribution

- we live modestly 4%
- we live very well 5%
- we get by ok 31%
- we live well 60%

Gender distribution

- girl 41%
- other
- boy 58%
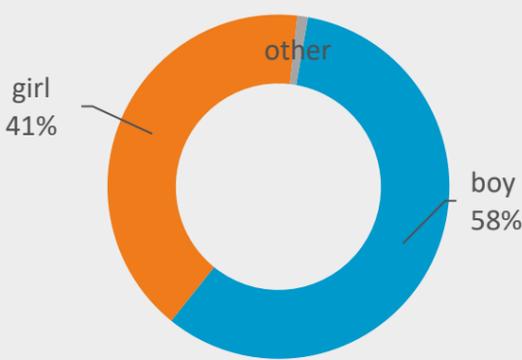

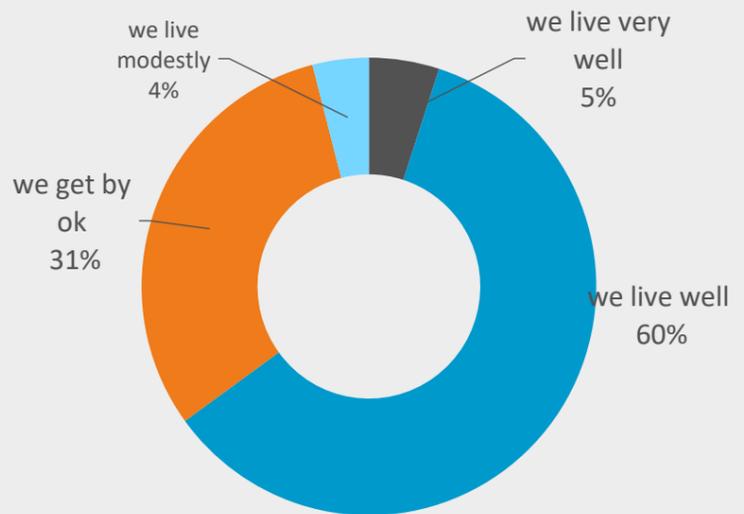

Below are the average proportions from the Italian respondents.

- 65% Communication and interaction skills
- 56% Technological and operational skills
- 38% Content creation and production skills
- 35% Information and navigation skills

Age is only correlated with high levels of technological and operational skills. Boys tend to present higher rates for technical and operational skills and for information and navigation skills. Girls present higher rates for communication and interaction skills. There is no gender differences on skills related to content creation and production.

Knowledge items*

The percentage of correct answers related to digital awareness is similar between boys and girls and increases with age.

46%
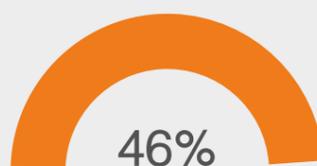

*Respondents answered a set of questions designed to measure their knowledge about how the internet and digital technologies work.

For more information on the project, visit www.yskills.eu