2019-10-07 14:00 UTC

Attending: Steve Baskauf, Matthew Nielsen, Martin Stein, Randy Singer (briefly)
Regrets: Neil Cobb

Agenda:

I. Review people or groups we wanted to inform about submitting use cases and make sure that someone is taking the lead on making the contact. Here's a more cleaned-up version of the list:

    A. Steve

        1. GBIF (Steve) sent to Matt Blissett (cc: Tim Robertson and Markus Doering) 2019-09-24

        2. tdwg-content (Steve) sent out 2019-09-23

        3. Suggested at the AC Maintenance Group call: "Uberon / Paula at Phenoscape" (Steve try to figure this one out)

        4. SYNTHESYS+ Steve will try to talk to Vince Smith directly at TDWG.

        5. NHCOLL- Listserv Steve investigate and see if Neil knows this one

    B. Martin

        1. Picturae (https://picturae.com/en/) (Martin) sent out 2019-09-24

        2. BioShare Digitization (http://www.bioshare.com/) (Martin) sent out 2019-09-24

        3. CETAF DWG Martin

        4. SYNTHESYS+ (Martin contact Lawrence Livermore, Kristine Gorman) EU project related to DISCO (NHM London email)

    C. Matt

        1. Big listservs: evoldir, ecolog (Matt)

    D. Neil

        1. iNaturalist (Ken-ichi Ueda <kueda@calacademy.org>) and Fieldguide (andre poremski (Neil)

        2. iDigBio (and various sub-organizations) (Steve) and TCNs (Fungi, lichens, macroalgae) I think Neil said he would contact specific people.

        3. iDigBio social media/newsletter follow up on making sure that Neil contacts

        4. Atlas of Living Australia and related CSIRO efforts (Neil)

        5. Other Listservs (entomology collections network [ECN] iDigBio)

        6. http://globalants.org/static/trait-descriptions.pdf (Neil)

        7. SCAN list (North American arthropods) probably Neil

II. Steve reported briefly about resubmitting the charter to the Executive Committee. He's also going to talk up our work at the TDWG meeting and try to get people interested in submitting use cases.

III.   We will touch bases by email again a couple weeks before the Nov. 1 deadline remind ourselves to re-contact people and remind them that the deadline for submitting use cases is coming soon.

IV.   We will meet again sometime after Nov. 1 to plan for the next steps in processing the submitted use cases.
