The Practical Applications of IIF - Final Webinar: Project Demonstrators and the Future of IIF in a National Collection Context.

About this event

Practical applications of IIF: as a building block towards a digital National Collection", part of the AHRC funded "Towards a National Collection" programme, aims to highlight and demonstrate the opportunities and benefits that the International Image Interoperability Framework (IIF) standard offers to a wide audience of heritage institutions and researchers looking to share, present and re-use high quality images and media on the web.

This final webinar seeks to present the four project demonstrators that were developed as part of the project: the Publication Viewer, SimpleSite and SimpleDiscovery, the Tudor Paintings Research Project/InvenioRDM Repository Pilot, and the new Digirati Manifest Editor.

Agenda

16.00: Introduction and Welcome

16.05: The Towards a National Collection Initiative: Reflections on the Foundation Phase

16.15: The Practical Applications of IIF Demonstrators:

- The IIF Publication platform: Using IIF collections to link data and resources to published outputs
- SimpleSite and SimpleDiscovery: Creating a search interface for cross collection work
- The Tudor Paintings Research Project: a joint venture to host a IIF repository between the National Portrait Gallery and InvenioRDM
- The Digirati Manifest Editor: a new interface for the creation of bespoke IIF manifests
