

1) Program objectives and relation to other programmes

2) Components' identification and classification

3) Identification of activities and general components' identification and classification

4) Classification: identifying general components' identification and classification

5) Public evaluation: identifying level of and components' identification and classification

6) Funding: identifying level of and components' identification and classification

7) Organization of programs and lack of resources

8) Human resources: identifying level of and components' identification and classification

9) Characteristics of programs and lack of resources

