

ESOF 2022
EUROSCIENCE OPEN FORUM
LEIDEN 13-16 JULY

Science Policy Career Paths: From lab to legislation

Speakers:

- Lorenzo Melchor – Joint Research Centre, European Commission
- Chloe Hill – European Geosciences Union (EGU)
- Iain Stewart – Royal Scientific Society, University of Plymouth

Moderator: Ivana Kurecic – EuroScience Science Policy Working Group

Resources:

- Mapping and assessment of science-for-policy ecosystems
- Science for Policy Report – Competences for policymaking
- Science for Policy Handbook
- Science meets Regions
- Science and policy matchmaking event series
- JRC-RTD Online workshop “Share your views – How to support and connect policymaking in the EU and Member States with scientific research?”
- European Commission – Consultations
- Register of Commission Expert Groups and Other Similar Entities
- External Staff Recruitment at the Joint Research Centre
- Traineeships at the European Commission
- S4D4C European Science Diplomacy Online Course

EuroScience Working Group: Science Policy

- Activities to facilitate the interaction between scientists and policymakers
- Guidance for researchers looking to effectively communicate their research goals
- Topics:
 - science advocacy and communication
 - innovation and entrepreneurship
 - research evaluation
 - research integrity and academic freedom
 - gender and social inequalities in science
 - open research
 - sustainability of research careers

To join, contact office@euroscience.org or visit
our webpage

ESOF2022 LEIDEN 13-16
EUROSCIENCE OPEN FORUM JULY
CROSSING BORDERS, ENGAGED SCIENCE, RESILIENT SOCIETIES

European
City of Science
Leiden2022

Co-funded by the European Union