

IN NEW UZBEKISTAN, PEOPLE ARE DEAR, CITIZEN ARE DEAR

Nargiz Rozibayeva

Uchtepa district of Tashkent city

High School of the 62nd

High class teacher of education.

Excellence in Public Education of the Republic of Uzbekistan

<https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.7066759>

Abstract: The great and glorious date in the history of new Uzbekistan - the thirty-first anniversary of the independence of our country - is being greeted with great joy and pride by our people. It is not an exaggeration to say that the glorious history of our country, the change in the beauty of our country, and the fact that our youth achieved victories in worthy arenas was worthy gift.

Key words: New Uzbekistan, development of the country, human value.

Human life is such that every moment of it has great meaning. There are days that, in essence, are equivalent to months and years, and determine the fate of a nation, a society, an entire country, several generations that lived in this country, and the path of a happy life.

On August 31, 1991, The Chronicle of our history was sealed as a similar lunar day. According to the historical decision taken on this day, September 1 was declared independence day, a nationwide holiday in our country. The realization of the century-old dreams of our people, the creation of appropriate conditions for each citizen to live life in accordance with his dreams, strengthening the new independent motherland with all measures, protecting it from various attacks was defined as the main idea, the main goal of our independence.

Indeed, there are many countries, states in the world. But our holy Uzbekistan is the only one for the children of this dear land, our people of a total of 35 million. His land is dear and precious. Homeland independence is an invaluable blessing, the value of which cannot be measured by anything. Therefore, it has become a noble tradition in our country to meet the greatest, most dear holiday of independence with deep preparation in every possible way for us.

An atmosphere of peace and stability and civil and interethnic harmony are being strengthened in our society. In order to establish a new Uzbekistan, large-scale reforms, liberalization of all aspects of our life, rapid development of the economy and its sectors, and private entrepreneurship is being carried out. In particular, special attention is paid to the comprehensive support of the socially vulnerable part of the population, the reduction of poverty, and the creation of new jobs and sources of income.

Independence means, first of all, right. Only through Independence, every person living in our country realize his dignity, honor, and pride, which became the main factor in ensuring the rights and freedoms of all citizens living in our country of independence, regardless of social origin, beliefs, personal and social status.

The spiritual spirit of the people was strengthened, social activity increased, and awareness was ensured. More importantly-every citizen living in our country today, regardless of gender, race, nationality, language, religion, beliefs, and position, considers Uzbekistan to be their dear homeland, the Golden Cradle. It considers itself responsible for the peace of the cradle, and for further prosperity. Uzbekistan is infinitely proud that its reputation in the international arena increases every day and its prestige is strengthened.

The peace and harmony that reigns in our country is the air of everyone. It is a pride for all of us that our country has become a modern, independent, and sovereign state, which has historically relied on its strength and potential from a disadvantaged country that has not managed to support itself in a short period of time, is able to defend its borders, its peaceful and peaceful life, is developing at a consistent and stable pace today.

The great work carried out in the past period on the way to the establishment of a new Democratic state, and civil society in our country, the high results achieved, undoubtedly, are an invaluable contribution of our compatriots who work selflessly in various spheres and sectors of our life.

During the years of independence, our ancient history, rich heritage, national statehood, sacred religion, traditions, and traditions have been restored. Today, such noble qualities as kindness, tolerance, solidarity, respect for national and universal values, and a sense of belonging to the fate and future of the motherland took place from the bottom of our hearts.

"It is national independence that occupies a worthy place for the country from the world community and is the main source of all our achievements and achievements, creating a solid foundation for the construction of a legal democratic state and a free civil society, including the implementation of large-scale reforms in various spheres and sectors of life.

Especially in recent years, in the world, in an incredibly difficult and difficult situation caused by the coronavirus pandemic and the economic crisis, fierce competition, various contradictions, and contradictions, it is necessary to emphasize that with the selfless work of our brave and noble people, we have achieved significant results in building a new Uzbekistan and glorifying it to the world, these achievements are recognized.

The implementation of the new Uzbek development strategy for 2022-2026, strengthening the achievements and bringing the radical reform processes to a new level, bringing human rights and interests, its value, honor, and pride to the leading position, has become our priority at the moment to maintain peace and stability in our country, ensure the territorial integrity and indivisibility of our state, ensure the inviolability, it is becoming an immeasurable force that mobilizes to high heights, " the head of our Country notes.

References:

1. Adbujalilova, S. A., & Koraev, S. B. (2020). Талабалар илмий дунёқарашини шакллантиришда педагогик технологияларнинг ўрни. Academic research in educational sciences,
2. Avlaev, O. U., Burkhanov, A. A., Ismoilova, D. M., & Norkuzieva, M. A. (2020). Factors Affecting the Intellectual Dynamics of the Individual. Test Engineering & Management, 83, 693-702.

